VINCE SAGUN

Vince Sagun is a Filipino-Canadian Dancer whose Dance Prowess continues to grow with every class and session. As an upcoming dancer aspiring to be like his mentors Vince is currently attending George Brown Polytechnics training under The Performance Dance Program which is training him in a wide array of dance styles such as Ballet, Jazz, Modern, Contact Improv and Hip Hop (2025-2026)

Vince Sagun is a versatile dancer whose Main Focus at first was Hip Hop but through dance training and hard work evolved into a multifaceted and highly versatile dancer able to perform multiple styles such as Ballet, Modern, Jazz, Hip Hop, Jazz Funk, Contemporary, Lyrical, Tap and Heels. He is always in search of ways to grow his arsenal of skills to make him the best dancer that he can possibly be.

Vince currently dances for The Canadian Football League as a part of the Toronto Argonauts A team performing high energy and entertaining dances in football stadiums as well as events across Toronto.

Vince Recently performed in a well known Toronto dance show called FEVER After Dark where he performed in a piece heavily inspired by R&B vibes and movement called Wet and Freaky choreographed by Shamar Ramsey.
