Also, to get full credit for this, you need to do one more thing. On the back of the paper, do the following:

Write a paragraph about your daily routines. Include 5 different times and the 5 different activities you do at those times. Write in paragraph forms, not bullets. Be sure to include words in your writing such as first, after, next, and finally to transition from one activity to another. Use as much current and prior vocabulary to show me what you know.
