Bad weather/emergency plan:

Contact Hazelwood Library at (412) 421-2517 and ask them to place a sign on the door indicating the status of returns for that day (canceled, delayed, as scheduled).

Attempt to contact tax payers scheduled for that day and inform them as to whether the site will be open. If necessary, reschedule appointments.

Important Information about your organization (mission, other work that you do, etc.):

There are three pillars that guide the YMCA of Greater Pittsburgh's work: youth development, healthy living, and social responsibility. The tax program is operated by the Y's Hope For All program, which falls squarely under social responsibility. Through Hope For All, clients are connected to resources and services they may not have otherwise
