Education

Columbia College Chicago

September 2022- Present

Currently, I'm a college student majoring in music and minoring in theatrical directing. I hope to become a singer/songwriter and be able to direct my own videos and concerts. Additionally, these classes help me to work in a production environment of both musical and theatrical backgrounds.

G.W. Carver Magnet High School

August 2018 - 2022

At my highschool, we have "strands" that put us in classes that we will focus on during college. I am in the performing arts strand, specifically choir, but also containing classes in theatre.
