

University of Lynchburg

Office of Campus Safety and Security

Security Video Monitoring

The University of Lynchburg is committed to providing a safe and secure environment for the campus community. The purpose of security video monitoring/recording is to enhance campus security and the safety of persons and property through electronic security patrol of campus areas, monitor access to grounds and facilities, documentation of incidents, and assist campus safety officers in criminal or misconduct investigations. Video monitoring cameras may be stationary or worn by campus safety officers.