

All the Best Apps for Real Estate Course Description

They say there is an app for everything, well that is true as there are now over a million of them. This session will help you cut through the clutter and identify the best apps to have to run your life and business in a much more cost and time-efficient manner, plus pick up some amazing tools that will allow you to service the consumer like never before!

Overall Direct Learning Objectives:

- Understand the productivity & organizational app options to determine the right one for your personal and business needs.
- Understand the real estate app options to determine the right one for your personal and business needs.
- Identify the apps that can help address your needs &/or improve customer service
- Identify the right apps to run your business in the most cost & time efficient manner.

Course Format:

This course can be delivered online or in person through a combination of lectures, discussions, demonstrations, and hands-on activities that will ensure each student has a full understanding of apps and how to use them ethically in their business.