

Para-Barasprite Song #2:

Para-Barasprites: Para Bara garaty goo. We have a lesson to teach all of you. Para Bara garaty gee. This is good lesson for you and me. You should have learned how to hold your own tongue. The bell of regret has finally rung. Keeping your word would have made you more safe. You're just lucky you aren't a waif.

Para-Barasprites 1 & 2: Though it sounds more plausible.

Para-Barasprites: Para Bara garaty golk. We have taught what you need to know folks. Be careful we have warned all you. Like the Para Bara garaty goo.
