Past Administrative Responsibilities

As the Vice Provost for Instruction and Dean of Undergraduate Studies, I had the following responsibilities:

- Oversaw undergraduate general education at Portland State University, including both the Honors Program, and our well-recognized University Studies Program. Worked with the program's director to place the latter program on a sound financial footing, to strengthen the science offerings within the program, to institute the University Studies Professors program to draw tenured faculty to teach in University Studies, as well as to introduce a rotational model into the freshman component of the program. We hired 25 tenure-line faculty to fill shared positions to support UNST.
- Chief Accreditation officer (shared position, 2006-2010)
- Supervised the Gold program (the Oregon National Guard officer training program) on campus.
- Managed the Center for Academic Excellence, PSU's faculty development center, which then had a $1,000,000 budget.
- Administered the Interdisciplinary Studies program, the Dean/President's Honors list, and the Scholarly and Creativity Grants for Undergraduates.
- Oversaw undergraduate curriculum after approval by Faculty Senate, including reporting to the provost's council and state board, and serving as a liaison to our accrediting body for new programs (in particular with international proposals).
- Served as an ex officio member of the Academic Requirements Committee, the Assistant and Associate Deans Committee, Faculty Senate, the Institutional Assessment Council, the Scholastic Standards Committee, and the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee. I also supervised the production of the University Bulletin.
- Served on a task-force regarding fixed term faculty appointments.
- Served on the administrative bargaining team with AAUP during the 2009 negotiations.
- Served as the co-chair of the Learning Outcomes and Assessment task group for the Oregon University System. This task group was responsible for creating a plan for learning outcomes and assessment for OUS to be initially implemented in fall 2010.

- Served as Oregon's Liaison to the AAC&U Tri-State Partnership, Giving Students a Compass.
- Chaired the Advisory Committee on Academic Informational Technology for 2007-08, which oversaw the development of a strategic plan for technology for the campus.
- Member of the Council of Academic Deans, as well as Excom (an advisory group of vice-provosts)
- Responsible for Assessment, in cooperation with the director of the Office of Institutional Research and Planning.
- In 2008-2009 I led a year-long process that led the university to adopt campus-wide undergraduate learning outcomes.
- Led an Ad Hoc task force to create standard templates for articulation documents, and a guide for how these should be negotiated. I oversee all articulation agreements with our community college partners.
- Acted as the PSU representative to PAHEC, the Portland Area Higher Education Consortium, an association of PSU with five community college partners. This consortium is now being restructured in the form of enhanced co-admission agreements between the community colleges and Portland State University.
- Served as Portland State University's chief accreditation liaison officer. I led the successful effort to prepare a focused interim report on assessment, which was accepted by the NorthWest Commission on Colleges and Universities.
