Resources for Macbeth Literary Criticism

Gale Literary Sources (mayl require password patriot)

Gale Literary Sources brings together all of Gale's literary databases into one seamlessly cross-searchable research and study environment. Whether you're researching authors and their works, literary movements or genres, or trying to find book reviews of bestsellers, you can search across all of your library's Gale literary databases to find full text of literary works, journal articles, literature criticism and analysis, reviews, author biographies, and a rich collection of expertly written work overviews.

Literature Criticism Online (will require password patriot)

Gale™ takes literature, history and culture to the next level with the largest, most extensive compilation of literary commentary available: Literature Criticism Online. Imagine centuries of analysis - the scholarly and popular commentary from broadsheets, pamphlets, encyclopedias, books and periodicals - delivered in an easy-to-use 24/7 online format that matches the exact look and feel of the print originals. The net result is tens of thousands of hard-to-find essays at your fingertips. It's all designed to raise the level of research while providing the around-the-clock remote access that today's researchers demand.

Literature Resource Center - LRC

Find up-to-date biographical information, overviews, full-text literary criticism and reviews on more than 130,000 writers in all disciplines, from all time periods and from around the world. The optional MLA International Bibliography module adds citations for hundreds of thousands of books, articles and dissertations from 1926 to the present, linked to full text where available.

JSTOR is available through the Boston Public Library (BPL).

If you already have a BPL eCard or

a physical BPL card,

then go to BPL's Electronic Resources page & click JSTOR.

When prompted, enter your BPL library card info.

If you don't have a BPL eCard then sign up for a BPL eCard.

After you have signed up,

(Don't use your school email address)

then go to the Electronic Resources page and click JSTOR.

Use the number that was emailed to you along with the PIN you chose to access it.

Physical Books

