Sectional sofas, set in a gamut of designs, are the most popular choice for the living room decor. These come with the most innovative designs that appeal to the masses. The latest in the sectional sofas is made using the perfect combination of both leather and fabric. These trendy sofas are contoured for your comfort with the built in side tables on each side. The fabulous look and feel make these sofas much more suitable for a larger living area. If you have a smaller area that can't accommodate a sectional sofa, you can opt for sofa beds. Sofa beds, slightly smaller than sectional sofas, have a classic look. For those who have guests frequently visiting for stay overs, sofa beds are the best option.
