

SL: Great News Jeff!

Hey Jeff,

I've been seeing your content go viral lately. You're doing the head movement while people try to punch you. Very impressive! 🔥

It got me interested in you, and so I searched for you on Instagram. Which led me to see your programs.

I'm assuming you hired an expert to write the copywriting for all your pages and set up the necessary funnels to convert at a high rate.

However, from what I can tell, your landing pages still seem to have gaps.

I suggest:

- A more captivating headline
- Adding Testimonials and proof of results
- Optimizing for consumption of information

Now, the first two are pretty easy to change. But the last bullet might be a struggle to perfect. I'm a digital marketer, and I specialize in copywriting.

If you are interested in having a better landing page so you can have better conversion rates and an increase in sales, let me know.

I'll create a completely FREE and new landing page for you that will minimize the gaps and have your programs selling like crazy.

I know you're busy and might forget to follow up with me, so I'll follow up with you in 48 hours.

Talk soon,
David Dominguez-Leon
