Time: 10 am-5 pm

Venue: Malda College Ground

Members Attended:

An illustrious display of sportsmanship and camaraderie unfolded at Malda College through the organization of an inter-departmental cricket tournament. A total of sixteen departments enthusiastically participated in this sporting extravaganza, transforming the college campus into a lively arena for friendly competition. The league matches, spanning from December 22 to 27, 2023, witnessed fervent audience participation, manifesting the profound passion Indians harbour for the game of cricket. The resounding cheers, relentless claps, and spirited shouts resonated through the atmosphere, contributing to the electrifying ambiance of the tournament. The emotional investment from both students and professors was palpable as they ardently supported their respective departments, creating an atmosphere charged with intensity and excitement. Each match became a focal point of collective engagement, with participants and spectators alike immersed in the thrill of the cricketing contests.

After a series of riveting and closely contested matches, the Department of English emerged triumphant as the overall champion, showcasing exemplary skill and teamwork. The Political Science Department demonstrated commendable performance and secured the Runners-up trophy. To honour the dedication and sportsmanship exhibited by all players, medals were presented to each member of the champion and runners-up teams. The final match's standout performer, Priyadeep Swarnakar, was rightfully awarded the prestigious 'Man-of-the-Match,' underscoring his exceptional contribution to the culminating game. The tournament not only celebrated athletic prowess but also fostered a sense of unity and camaraderie among the diverse academic departments of Malda College.

Annual Sports

Organised by the sports Committee of Malda College

Malda College consistently demonstrates its commitment to fostering sportsmanship and physical fitness by annually organizing sports events with enthusiastic participation and grandeur. In the latest edition, the Annual Sports event for the session 2022-23, took place on December 15, 2023, orchestrated by the dedicated Malda College Sports Committee. The event was inaugurated by the Principal, Dr. Manas Kumar Baidya, and Shri Krishnendu Narayan Chowdhury, the esteemed Chairperson of Malda Municipality. The latter's graceful presence elevated the significance of the Annual Sports, underscoring the community's recognition and support for such initiatives promoting physical fitness and healthy competition.

The event comprised 24 competitions, strategically categorized for both male and female participants, encompassing a diverse range of athletic disciplines such as the 100 Metres Run, 200 Metres Run, 400 Metres Run, 800 Metres Run, 1500 Metres Run, Javelin Throw, Discuss Throw, Putting the Shot, Long/Broad Jump, and High Jump. This comprehensive selection aimed to provide a platform for students with varied athletic talents to showcase their skills and compete with fervour. A noteworthy feature of the event was the active participation of 250 candidates, reflecting the widespread engagement and interest among the student body. The inclusive nature of the sports events allowed individuals to explore and excel in their preferred disciplines, contributing to a vibrant and competitive atmosphere. Recognizing and celebrating excellence, the organizers diligently acknowledged the top three performers in each session. Medals and certificates were awarded to these outstanding participants, fostering a culture of recognition and motivation among the students. This practice not only honors individual achievements but also encourages a spirit of friendly competition and sportsmanship.

In essence, the Annual Sports event at Malda College not only serves as a testament to the institution's commitment to holistic student development but also reinforces the values of teamwork, discipline, and excellence through the celebration of athletic achievements.

Malda College Students' Week Celebration 2024

Dates: 02-01-2024 to 08-01-2024

Time: 11 am to 5 pm

Venue: Malda College Precinct

As per the direction of the Government of West Bengal, Malda College is observing Students' Week with grandeur and reverence, spanning from January 2nd to 8th, 2024. The festivities included a Health Check-Up Camp, Guardians' Meet, and a spectrum of Cultural Competitions encompassing Debate, Dance, Song, Recitation, Poster Competition, Essay Writing Competition, Quiz Competition, Annual Sports, and the Inter-Departmental Model Exhibition-cum-Competition. These diverse events are meticulously curated to offer students unique platforms for exhibiting their individual talents while fostering a sense of collaborative spirit among them.

Day 1: 2nd January 2024

The first day of the Students' Week commenced with the inauguration of Mukta-bandhu, an exclusive platform for a myriad of performances at Malda College. This dedicated space was ceremoniously unveiled by Dr. Manas Kr. Baidya, the esteemed Principal of Malda College. Mukta-bandhu will remain a dedicated stage for students to showcase their talents and contribute to the cultural vibrancy of the academic community.

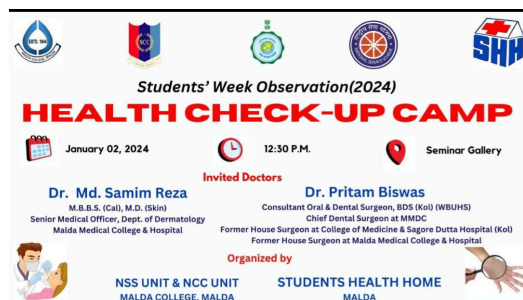

1. Campus Cleaning Programme

Organized by NCC & NSS Unit

On the inaugural day, the NSS Volunteers and NCC Cadets carried out a Swachhta Drive across the College Campus. Commencing the program, they initiated the cleaning efforts with due reverence to the statue of Prof. Durgakinkar Bhattacharya, the esteemed former Principal and Reformer of Malda College.

2. Free Health Checkup Organised by Students Health Home, Malda

During the 2nd half of the 1st day of Students' Week Observation, the NCC and NSS Unit of Malda College collaborated with Students Health Home, Malda, to conduct a comprehensive and complimentary Health Check-up Camp. The event featured informative lectures by Dr. Samim Reza, a Dermatologist, and Dr. Pritam Biswas, a Dentist, who provided valuable insights before commencing the physical checkup sessions. This initiative not only prioritized the well-being of the students but also aimed to enhance health awareness through expert guidance.

Day 2 : 3rd January 2024

1. Debate Competition

The 2nd day of Students' Week opened with a thought-provoking debate competition on the theme "Social Media: A Boon or Bane" on January 2, 2024. This opening program aimed to stimulate intellectual discourse and critical thinking among the student body. The event provided a platform for students to articulate their perspectives on the impact of social media, delving into its dual nature as both a blessing and a curse. Participants engaged in compelling arguments, exploring the societal implications, advantages, and drawbacks associated with the pervasive influence of social media platforms. A total of 14 students participated in the event, with 7 students advocating for the motion and an equal number opposing it. Pankaj Kumar Roy and Niyantri Das emerged as the champions, showcasing their exemplary skills in eloquence.

2. Inauguration of Exhibition and Sell By Women Entrepreneurs

The Women's Cell of Malda College introduced "Exhibition and Sale", an initiative to foster and promote women entrepreneurs and women empowerment. This platform provided the aspiring female students and alumni with scopes to whet their business acumen. The event showcased an array of stalls featuring boutique items, culinary delights, handicrafts, and clothing, serving as a vibrant platform for women to exhibit their entrepreneurial prowess. The collaborative effort between the Women's Cell, Malda College, and esteemed figures from the local business community highlights a commitment to empowering women in the realms of commerce and showcasing their talents in diverse sectors.

3. Singing Competition

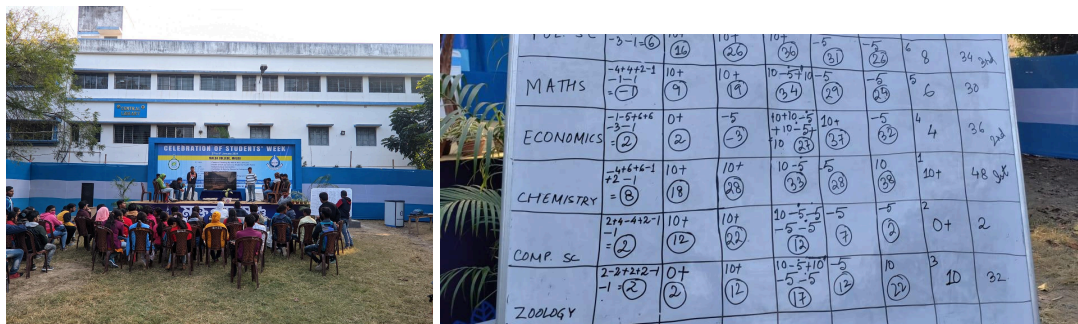

In alignment with the Students' Week Observation ceremony hosted by the Government of West Bengal, the Cultural Committee of Malda College orchestrated a Singing Competition on January 3, 2024, in Room No. 225. Enthusiastic students representing various departments showcased their talents in Rabindrasangeet, Nazrulgeeti, and Bengali Adhunik Songs. Distinguished judges were invited to evaluate the students' performances.

In the Rabindrasangeet category, Kaushiki Chatterjee secured the 1st position, followed by Debarjya Ganguly in 2nd place, and Archita Basak in 3rd place. In Nazrulgeeti, Archita Basak claimed the 1st position, Debarjya Ganguly secured the 2nd position, and Kaushiki Chatterjee clinched the 3rd position. Notably, the Bengali Adhunik Song segment witnessed commendable performances, with Sanchari Das securing the 1st position, Archita Basak securing the 2nd position, and Debarjya Ganguly achieving the 3rd position.

This event not only celebrated the rich cultural heritage through melodious renditions but also recognized and awarded the outstanding talents of the participants.

4. Quiz Competition

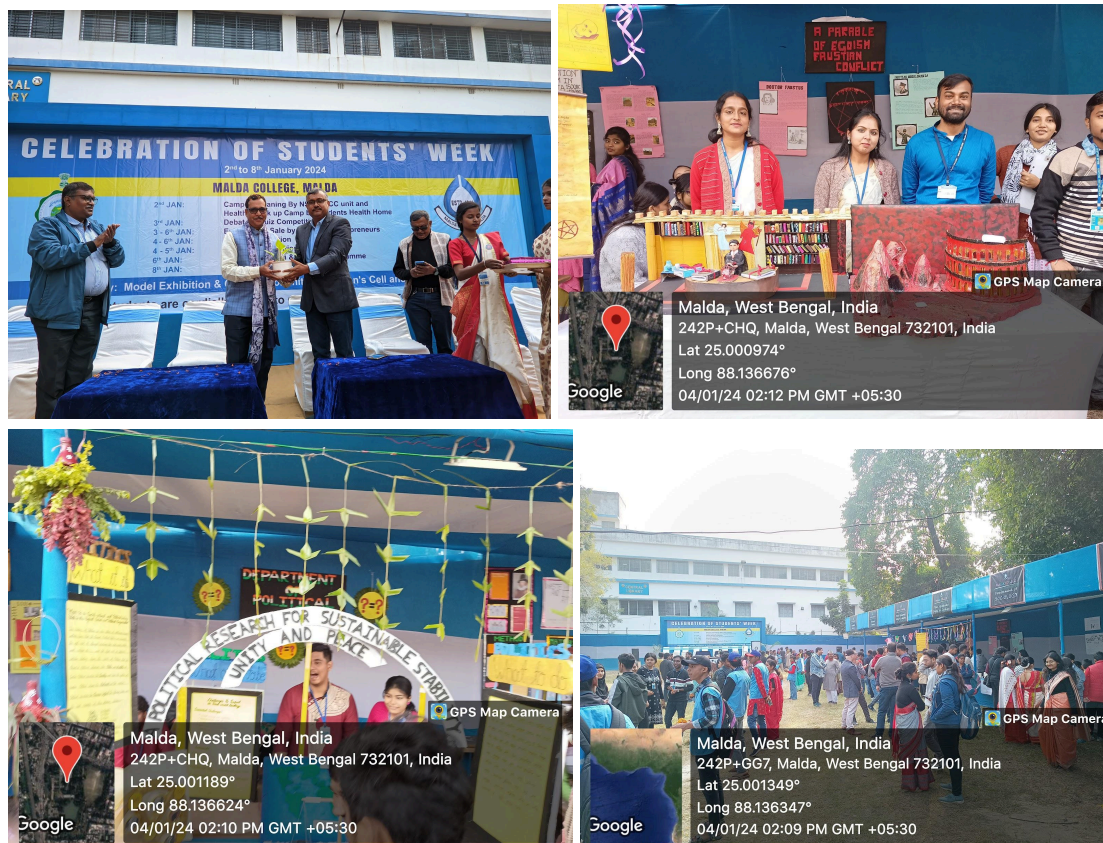

Today, on January 3, 2024, an Inter-Departmental Quiz Competition was held, drawing the participation of 12 departments of Malda College. Comprising teams of 2 students each, the initial stage involved a disqualification round. Following this phase, six departments—Computer Science, Political Science, Economics, Chemistry, Mathematics, and Zoology—successfully advanced to the main event conducted on stage. After seven intense rounds, the Department of Chemistry emerges as champions, with Economics and Political Science securing the first runner-up and second runner-up positions, respectively. This competition was crafted to assess students' general awareness, cognitive agility, and knowledge of current events transpiring in India and across the globe in contemporary times. It provided a platform for intellectual engagement and showcased the academic prowess of the participating departments.

Day 3 : 4th January 2024

1. Inter-Departmental Model Exhibition

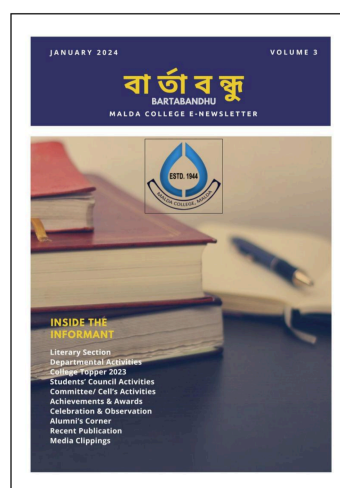

Dates: 4th January to 6th January 2024

Total stalls: 25

The highly anticipated event that captured the attention of both students and teachers was the Annual Inter-Departmental Model Exhibition-cum-Competition 2024. Featuring a total of 25 stalls, this exhibition served as a vibrant platform for students to showcase their creative endeavors. The inauguration took place on January 4, 2024 at 11 am, with the esteemed presence of Professor Rajat Kishore Dey, the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor of the University of Gour Banga, and the exhibition shall continue till 6th January 2024. Students passionately presented a diverse range of models/charts on themes such as rainwater harvesting, drip irrigation, renewable energy, Faustian egotism, impact of industrial revolution, partition literature, women's role in society and culture, among others. Beyond being a showcase of artistic creativity, this model and chart exhibition highlighted the collaborative spirit and collective effort of the students involved.

2. Publication of "Bratabandha" No 3 Malda College E-Newsletter

During the third day of the "Students Week Celebration 2024," (on January 4, 2024) the annual e-newsletter, Bartabandhu, was unveiled by the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor of the University of Gour Banga, Prof. Rajat Kishore Dey. Serving as a holistic overview of recent activities within the college, Bartabandhu spans across academics, co-curricular activities, sports, cultural events, and community outreach initiatives. This publication is a testament to Malda College's unwavering commitment to excellence in every facet of its endeavors, providing a comprehensive insight into the vibrant and multifaceted life within the institution. Dr. Biplab Chakraborty, Assistant Professor of Bengali, and the editor of Bartabandhu had pointed out that this newsletter had covered all the academic and extracurricular activities happening in the college, and conveyed his due reverence to all the contributors of the newsletter. The entire programme was moderated by Dr. Poulmi Bhawal, Assistant Professor of History, and Aratrika Roy, Assistant Professor of English.

3. Dance Competition

As a part of the Students Week observation, the Malda College has organized a Dancing Competition where students from all the departments of the college had enrolled their names as competitors. There were three themes: Rabindranritya, Sastriya Nritya(classical dance) and Folk dance. All the students performed very well, however, since it was a competition, the judges had to choose first, second and third on the basis of the performances. In Sastriya Nritya, Rajashmita Bhattacharya grabbed first position, Diya Halder secured second position while Sreyashree Roy stood third. Kanika Rajbanshi stood first in Rabindra Nritya, Koushiki Chatterjee and Subhangi Mani jointly secured second position while Moumita Basak and Sanchita Karmakar jointly stood third. Lastly, Diya Halder stood first in the branch of Folk dance while Subhangi Mani and Piya Podder secured second and third position respectively.

4. Awareness and Help Desk of Various WB Govt Scholarship, Students Credit Card: Special Drive

Malda College organized a dedicated Awareness and Help Desk stall besides Models Exhibition Stalls focusing on various West Bengal Government scholarships and the Students Credit Card as part of a Special Drive. The initiative aimed to enlighten students about the available financial aid options and support services. Key scholarships available for students highlighted through the posters included the Kanyashree Scholarship, specifically designed to benefit female students, empowering them to pursue education without financial constraints. The discussion also covered the Students' Credit Card initiative, offering financial assistance to eligible students for pursuing higher education. The Vivekananda Single Child Scholarship, another focal point of the awareness drive, was elucidated at the help desk. This scholarship targets single-child families, emphasizing the state's commitment to fostering educational opportunities for every eligible student. Additionally, insights were provided on the Merit Come Means Scholarship, addressing both academic excellence and financial need. The help desk served as an informative platform, guiding students through the application processes and eligibility criteria for these scholarship programs. By instating this stall, Malda College humbly facilitated a proactive approach toward accessing educational support and financial assistance, contributing to the academic empowerment of the student community.

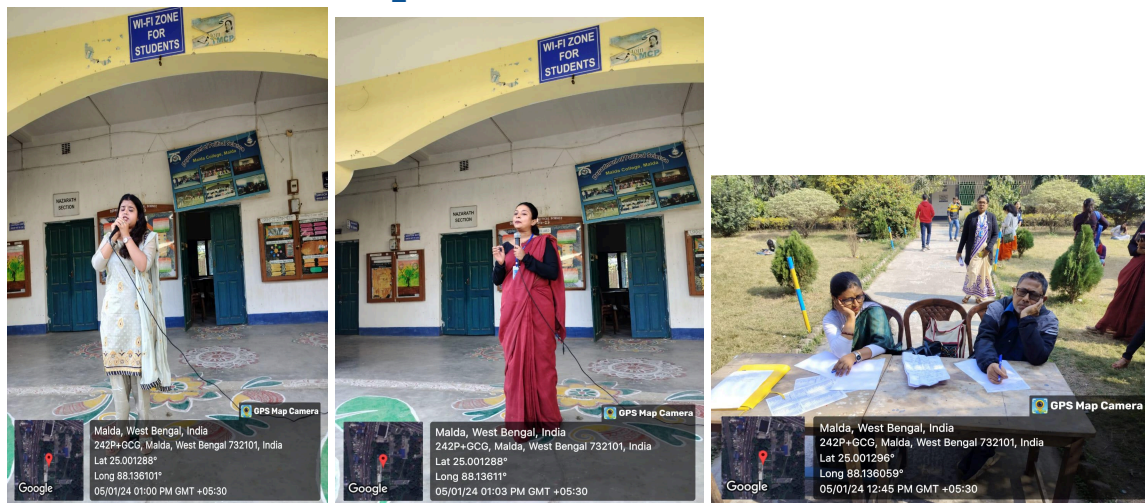

5. Photography Exhibition

The 'Photography Exhibition' segment was inaugurated as part of the 'Students' Week Celebration Programme 2024' within the precincts of Malda College, commencing at 2 pm. This event provided a captivating platform for students to showcase their photographic talents, with an array of diverse and compelling photographs on display. The exhibition not only celebrated the creative prowess of the students but also added a visually enriching dimension to the overall festivities of the Students' Week Celebration.

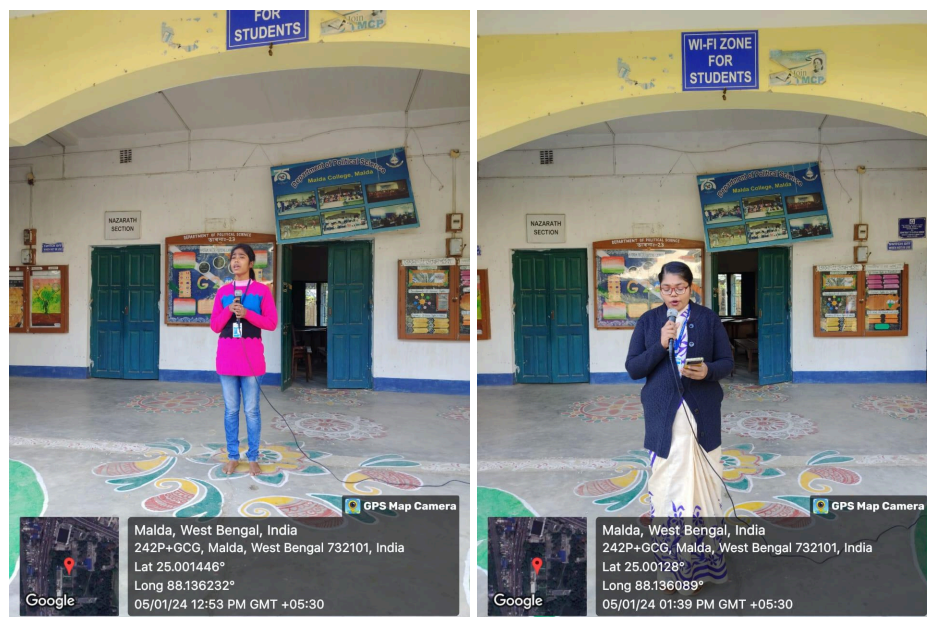

Day 4 : 5th January 2024

1. Recitation Competition

Recitation competition was held on 5th January, the fourth day of students' week celebration in Malda College. The event showcased students' talent and eloquence. The results of this engaging competition stand as a testament to the recital aptitude within the student body. Arpita Das claimed the coveted first position with her compelling recitation. The second spot was shared by two remarkable talents, Barnali Rabidas and Bidipta Nandi, whose performances captivated the audience with their poetic finesse. Securing the third position were Disa Das and Jinatun Nesha, both delivering performances that reflected a deep connection with the essence of their chosen pieces. Their skillful recitations not only earned them recognition but also added to the overall richness of the festival.

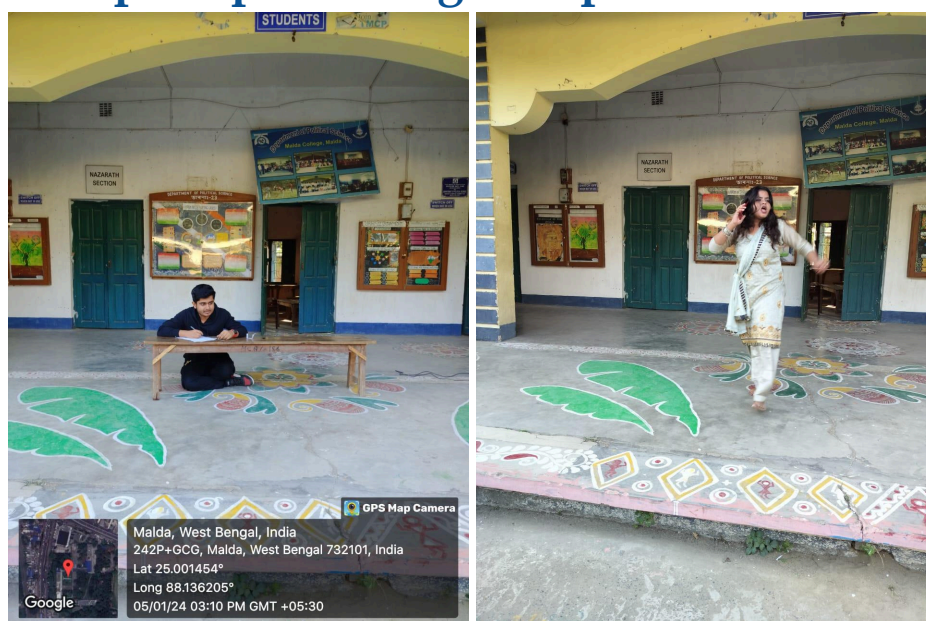

2. Recitation of Self-Authored Poems

Following the recitation competition, the stage was set for the Self-Composed Poetry Reading competition, a platform that echoed with the distinct voices of creativity from students belonging to various Departments. The Self-Composed Poetry Reading competition was more than a showcase of talent; it served as a celebration of individuality, creativity, and the power of words. The results reflect not only the winners' mastery of the poetic craft but also the collective spirit of imagination and expression that defines Malda College's vibrant academic community. In an exquisite display of poetic ingenuity, Pankaj Kumar Das got the first position. His self-composed verses resonated with the audience, showcasing not only literary prowess but also a profound connection with the intricacies of self-expression through poetry. The second spot in this lyrical journey was shared by Barnali Rabidas and Sandipan Mahato, both of whom presented their original compositions with a unique blend of passion and poetic flair. Ankit Saha secured the third position, adding another layer of diversity to the competition with his distinct poetic style. His ability to craft evocative verses contributed to the overall richness of the event.

3. Impromptu Acting Competition

Instant Acting- 1st- Kaushiki Chatterjee
2nd- Diya Halder
3rd- Pankaj Kumar Roy

4. 2nd Day of Model Exhibition

On the second day of the Model Exhibition hosted at Malda College, a total of 70 students from schools located in Malda Town and its vicinity had the opportunity to visit the event. The distinguished list of participating schools comprised Malda Zilla School, Akrurmoni Coronation Institution (H.S), Ramakrishna Mission Vivekananda Vidyamandir, The St. Xavier's School (Malda), North Point English Academy, and Shovanagar High School.

Malda College expresses sincere appreciation for the active involvement of these schools, contributing significantly to the success of the Model Exhibition and creating an enriching educational experience for all participants. Similar to the preceding day, the exhibition commenced at 12 pm and extended until 4:30 pm.

Visitors flocked around the stalls in large numbers, and appreciated the efforts of the students. The exhibition not only served as a platform for showcasing innovative models but also fostered an atmosphere of intellectual engagement and collaborative learning. The enthusiastic response from students and visitors alike underscored the educational and interactive value of the event, reinforcing Malda College's commitment to providing a dynamic and insightful platform for the dissemination of knowledge and creativity.

3. Felicitation to Successful Women Entrepreneurs who are alumni of the college.

Guardians' Meeting

On the 8th of January 2023, Department-wise Guardian Meetings were held by 16 Departments of Malda College in blended mode. These meetings served as a crucial platform for fostering communication and collaboration between the teachers of the educational institution, students, and their guardians. The departmental teachers engaged in substantive discussions with the guardians of students. The deliberations encompassed a spectrum of academic, developmental, and well-being aspects, providing a comprehensive overview of the students' progress and growth. Teachers shared insights into the curriculum, teaching methodologies, and extracurricular activities, offering guardians a nuanced understanding of their wards' educational journey. By bridging the gap between academia and guardianship, this initiative aims to create a cohesive educational system where the collective efforts of teachers, students, and guardians converge for the holistic development of the learners.

Malda College celebrated the 127th birth anniversary of our revered leader Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose, with profound dignity and reverence. The celebratory event unfolded with flag hoistings accompanied with the chant of the national anthem at the Malda College ground and the Matangini Hostel, the Girls' Hostel of Malda College. The Principal, Manas Kumar Baidya, in his brief speech, upheld the institution's commitment to honouring and remembering the legacy of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose. The NCC unit of Malda College performed a parade to honour one of the greatest patriotic freedom fighters of India. The teachers and NSS volunteers of Malda College hoisted the national flag with the students of the primary school of Malda College's adopted village, Narayali as well. In this event, militaries from the Narayanpur BSF camp also enthusiastically joined them, encouraging the children of the village and inspiring college students about patriotism and social responsibility. The participation of the villagers in this event holds a special significance for our students.

Malda College wins the 1st Prize in “District Level Model Exhibition 2024”

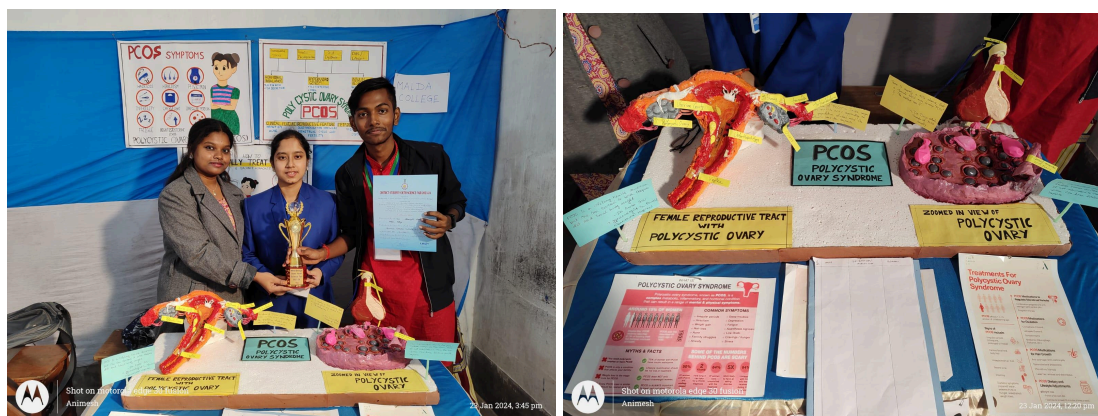

Participated by the Students of the Department of Zoology

Date: 23-24 January 2024

Time: 11 am to 4pm

Venue: AC Institution, Malda

Members Attended: 6

Malda College achieved a notable triumph by securing the 1st Prize in the "District Level Model Exhibition 2024," held on January 23-24, 2024.. The triumph was spearheaded by the commendable efforts of students from the Department of Zoology of Malda College. The event, conducted at the AC Institution in Malda, provided a platform for students to exhibit their scientific acumen and creative skills. Students of Malda College had chosen theme for the model presentation was the "Complications in Polycystic Ovary in the Female Reproductive Organ." This topic reflects a contemporary and critical area of study, aligning with the pressing health concerns in women's reproductive health. The students demonstrated their expertise by meticulously constructing a model that not only visually represented the complexities associated with polycystic ovary but also provided insightful information on the subject. The model aimed to educate and raise awareness about the intricate challenges faced by women in the realm of reproductive health. Prior to winning this competition, Department of Zoology emerged as champion in the Inter-Departmental Model Exhibition and Competition 2024 held by Malda College in the first week of this January.

Congratulations to the students and faculty involved in this commendable achievement.
