

Site Visit Funding 2023-2024

EdPrepLab is excited to announce supplemental funding to support individuals and/or teams wishing to participate in EdPrepLab-sponsored site visits during the 2023-2024 academic year. The funding can support additional accommodation, food, and travel costs (of up to $500 per person) associated with attending upcoming site visits to the University of Colorado, Denver during AACTE and the University of Pennsylvania during AERA. All members are eligible to apply.

You may contact Jessica Blum-DeStefano with any questions.

Contact Information

Submitting member name:

Professional title:

Institution:

Email:

Phone:

Additional Colleagues from Your Institution Requesting Funding

Please list any additional colleagues from your institution who would like to receive funding for the site visit.

Name	Title	Email

Total Funding Requested (up to $500 per person):

Please share a brief overview of how you would use/distribute the funds (no more than 200 words):

Commitment to Participate & Share

By submitting this application, you agree that—if awarded site visit funding—you will:

- Attend the Learning Café prior to the site visit
- Participate in all components of the site visit
- Share ideas and takeaways from the visit with your institution and the broader EdPrepLab community at an EdPrepLab event.

☐

I agree