Hi There!

Researching books is as important as writing & marketing the book.
Why?

Because unless and until you don't know the demands, the expectations of the market then how will you decide the topics for your own books?

But the problem is that most people spend too much researching & thus leaving a lot of money on the table.

What-if you could cut your book research time by half then how much more money you can make by ranking more books & thus making more sales.

But doing this process manually in amazon is quite cumbersome & there are not so easily available user-friendly tools in the market that can help you with the same.

But starting today, it has been made possible.
