

Name: _____

Period: _____

The Roaring 20s Study Guide

Warren G. Harding

Fordney-McCumber Tariff

Ohio Gang

Teapot Dome/Elk Hills Scandal

Albert Fall

Calvin Coolidge

consumerism/Conspicuous Consumption .

installment plan

xenophobia/nativism

isolationism

communism

Red Scare/Palmer Raids

Anarchists

Sacco & Vanzetti

KKK

quota system

prohibition/speakeasies/bootleggers

fundamentalism

Clarence Darrow/William Jennings Bryan

Scopes Trial

Flapper

double standard

Lost Generation

expatriate - F. Scott Fitzgerald, Ernest Hemingway

NAACP

Marcus Garvey

Harlem Renaissance

Zora Neale Hurston

Claude McKay

Langston Hughes

Louis Armstrong

Duke Ellington

Besse Smith

Review Questions:

Why was Harding's promise to return America to "normalcy" popular with voters?

How did Americans' shopping habits change during the 1920s?

What groups did the Ku Klux Klan target during the 1920s? How did its actions vary?

What are some attacks on civil liberties that reflected a return to isolationism?

Why was heavy funding needed to enforce the Volstead Act?

In what ways did flappers rebel against the earlier styles and attitudes of the Victorian Era?

How did high schools change in the 1920s?

What are some 1920s fads that were part of youth culture?

Where is Harlem? What distinction did it earn in the 1920s?

What did Marcus Garvey propose to African Americans?