

Title (EN) click and typing here

First name and last name of author

Affiliation of Author

E-mail¹ : corresponding author e-mail

Date Received : DD/MM/YYYY

Date Revised : DD/MM/YYYY

Date Accepted : DD/MM/YYYY

Date Published online : DD/MM/YYYY

Abstract

Start typing abstract English abstract content Use the normal font type TH Sarabun New, size 16, single line spacing, and the first line of the abstract must tap 1-tab every time. The length must not exceed 300 words.

Keywords: Keyword1, keyword2, keyword3, keyword4, keyword5

Introduction

Begin typing The introduction should explain the background, principles, and rationale of the article. The content of the introduction should be formatted using TH Sarabun New, 16-pt, regular font, with single line spacing.

Subheading

Begin typing

Sub-subheading

Begin typing

Points to Present

¹ Corresponding author

Begin typing This section contains the various points the author wants to present. It should include concepts, attitudes, and opinions on different aspects. Importantly, references should be cited to support the content.

Figures: Below each figure, include the word Figure followed by the sequence number and the figure title on the same line. The word Figure should be centered, bold, and in TH Sarabun New, 16-pt font. The figure title should be in TH Sarabun New, 16-pt, regular font. Additionally, the source of the figure should be mentioned one line below the figure title.

Tables: The table header should include the word Table followed by the sequence number and the table title, aligned to the left of the page. The word Table should be in TH Sarabun New, 16-pt, bold font, and the table title should be in the same line in regular font. Additionally, the source of the table (if any) should be mentioned one line below the table title or the bottom border of the tab

Conclusion

Begin typing This section should succinctly summarize all the key pts in a clear and concise manner, encouraging the reader to reflect on the content.

References

Begin typing references 1

Begin typing references 2

Begin typing references 3

Use the American Psychological Association (APA) style (7th edition) for writing references. Arrange the references at the end of the article or bibliography in the same order as words in the Royal Institute Dictionary or any widely accepted dictionary. Words with consonants should be arranged before words with vowels, in order from AA-AZ. There is no need to separate types or add reference numbers. If the reference details are longer than one line, indent the following lines by 5 characters (or 0.5 inches). All references must be cited or mentioned in the article.

Author Guidelines

1. Authors who wish to submit an article must include the full name, affiliation (faculty or workplace), and email address of the article author (or the main contact email) in the manuscript. 1.1 If there are multiple authors with the same affiliation, all authors' full names must be listed. 1.2 If there are multiple authors with different affiliations, list each author's full name followed by their affiliation, with only the main contact email provided.

2. The article to be submitted must be 12-25 A4 pages in length (including references), typed in TH Sarabun New font.

3. Page Margins: The article must have a margin of 1.0 inch on the top, bottom, left, and right (single-column layout).

4. Font and Line Spacing Format:

4.1 Font Format (for the content of the article, excluding author details):

1) Main Heading: TH Sarabun New 18 pt, left-aligned, bold

2) Subheading: TH Sarabun New 16 pt, indented 0.5 inches from the main heading, left-aligned, bold

3) Content: TH Sarabun New 16 pt, justified, regular

4) Indentation for Subheadings: Use 1.5-inch and 2.0-inch indentation for subheadings, respectively.

4.2 Line Spacing:

1) Line spacing between main headings/subheadings and content: 8 pt

2) Line spacing for content: single line spacing

5. In-text and References Format:

The format for in-text and end-of-article references must follow the American Psychological Association (APA) style, 7th edition, as follows:

5.1 In-text References: There are three formats:

1) (Author, year, page number) at the end of the cited text

2) Author (year, page number) at the beginning of the cited text. If the author's name is mentioned in the content, it should not be repeated in the parentheses.

3) Author year (page number). If both the author's name and year are mentioned in the content, only the page number should be provided in parentheses.

5.2 References: Full examples of reference writing can be found at <https://he02.tci-thaijo.org/index.php/JMARD/guidelines>