2022-2023 SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION
Dr. Lawrence H. Moore Human Relations Scholarship

Multicultural Coalition Organization
Alliance of Asian Pacific Administrators (AAPA)
Council of Black Administrators (COBA)
Council of Mexican American Administrators (CMAA)

The Alliance of Asian Pacific Administrators (AAPA), Council of Black Administrators (COBA), and Council of Mexican American Administrators (CMAA) have joined together to sponsor scholarships for selected high school seniors.

Each of the organization awards three (3) scholarships to eligible seniors who have, beyond the norm demonstrated leadership in promoting intergroup-intercultural relations and/or have through their actions, significantly reduced intergroup tension at their school and/or community.

Eligible students must have maintained a minimum 3.0 Grade Point Average, grades 9-12. The one-time scholarship of $2,000 will be awarded to students upon submission of proof of enrollment in a college or university.

The Dr. Lawrence H. Moore Human Relations Scholarship will be awarded to students of our partner ethnic groups who have met these criteria. The naming of these scholarships is to honor Dr. Moor for his vision and dedication to promote better human relations within the Los Angeles Unified School District.

Attached is the scholarship application and documents to be submitted electronically.

The deadline for application submission electronically is Friday, March 10, 2023 @3pm.

About the Dr. Lawrence H. Moore Human Relations Scholarship

The Dr. Lawrence H. Moore Human Relations Scholarship is awarded to students of our partner ethnic groups who have demonstrated leadership in promoting positive intergroup relations at their schools and in their communities. The naming of this scholarship is to honor Dr. Moore for his vision to partner with the Alliance of Asian Pacific Administrators (AAPA), the Association of Jewish Educators (AJE), the Council of Mexican American Administrators (CMAA) and the Council of Black Administrators (COBA) in organizing the Multicultural Coalition to promote human relations within the Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD).

Dr. Moore served as COBA President from 1992-1994.

Moore's career in the Los Angeles Unified School District began in September 1961 and he served as an elementary school teacher, a special education teacher, an adult education teacher, a vice principal and principal. In addition, Moore held administrative positions as Director of Instruction, Cluster Administrator, Coordinator and Director of Professional Development.

Upon his retirement from the District in June 2000, he continued teaching as a substitute teacher in the LAUSD through June 30, 2002. Moore also taught as an adjunct professor in the Department of Education at California State University, Northridge (CSUN).

Moore's commitment to education extended beyond the classroom. Over the years, he earned service recognitions and honors including the Charter College of Education "Distinguished Educator Award", the Honorable Augustus F. Hawkins "Distinguished Service Award", the Association of California School Administrators "Outstanding Administrator", the Granada Hills Chamber of Commerce "Outstanding Service Award", and the Council of Black Administrators "Diane E. Watson Award".

In 2011, the LAUSD named a school in his honor: Dr. Lawrence H. Moore Mathematics, Science, Technology Academy.
