reimbursed for her actual, reasonable travel expenses as provided below. Surrogate shall be reimbursed for her mileage at the Internal Revenue Service’s business rate for the year in which travel is conducted. Should air travel be required, Surrogate shall be reimbursed for actual costs of airline tickets and parking fees for she and a companion. If Surrogate is required to stay overnight away from her home in the performance of her duties under this Agreement, Intended Parent(s) agree to pay for a reasonable, cost efficient hotel, with arrangements to be made by or approved by Intended Parent(s) in advance of her travel. For a required overnight trip away from her home, Surrogate will also receive a non-accountable meal allowance of seventy-five dollars ($75) per day.

Surrogate’s Lost Wages: Surrogate shall be paid net lost wages for hours missed from work for (i) restriction of activities/bed rest in accordance with doctor orders; (ii) post delivery recovery (up to four (4) weeks after birth for vaginal delivery, six (6) weeks for c-section delivery); (iii) court appearance, (iv) partial or full hysterectomy, (v) attendance at embryo transfer, and (vi) attendance at each doctor appointment. Surrogate is also entitled to receive $80 per week for housekeeping, and up to $15 per hour for childcare for up to 20 hours per week. This is for actual housekeeping and childcare utilized in the cases described above (i-vi). Lost wages will be calculated by taking the net wages and dividing by the total number of hours worked in the same period. A recent pay stub for the previous pay period must be provided to Await Surrogacy at time of reimbursement request. The amounts provided are an estimate and may fluctuate according to Surrogate’s actual net wages at the time of reimbursement request. Her hourly rate as of _____ 10/30/2025 _____ is ___$17_____. TBD

Surrogate’s Spouse’s Lost Wages: Surrogate’s spouse shall receive net lost wages in the amount of actual wages lost when Surrogate’s spouse attends a qualifying event. The number of days requested for attendance at medical screening or embryo transfer must be approved by Intended Parent(s) prior to the event and will be based on the fertility clinic travel companion requirements, bedrest protocol, and the distance traveled from the Surrogate’s home. Qualifying events and the number of days of allowed payment of net lost wages include: medical screening, if required by fertility clinic or if agreed upon during match (up to two (2) days); each embryo transfer, if required by fertility clinic or if agreed upon during matching (up to three (3) days); vaginal birth or miscarriage procedure (up to three (3) days); and/or cesarean section delivery (up to three (3) days). Surrogate’s Spouse’s lost wages will be calculated by taking the net wages and dividing by the total number of hours worked in the same period. A recent pay stub for the previous pay period must be provided to Await Surrogacy at time of reimbursement request. The amounts provided are an estimate and may fluctuate TBD
