TEXAS RUNOFF

STATE PRIMARY RUNOFF ★ MAY 22

TEXAS

Ballot Request must be received by May 11

Absentee Ballot must be postmarked by May 22 and received by May 29, 2018

Vote from Abroad.org

Since the Texas Runoff is scheduled for May 22, the runoff ballots should've been sent to overseas voters around April 7. If voters in these districts have not received their ballot, they should vote now using the FWAB.

Here are the primary races for federal office between Democrats that will be decided by runoff:

1. Congressional District 3
2. Congressional District 4
3. Congressional District 6
4. Congressional District 7
5. Congressional District 10
6. Congressional District 21
7. Congressional District 22
8. Congressional District 23
9. Congressional District 25
10. Congressional District 27
11. Congressional District 31
12. Congressional District 32

Texas voters who indicated they 'intend to return' may vote in state races. The runoffs between Democrats are for:

1. Governor of Texas
2. State Senate District 17
3. House District 37
4. House District 45
5. House District 46
6. House District 47
7. House District 64
8. House District 104
9. House District 109
10. House District 133
