

Website of Department of Water Resources of Goa

Department of Water Resources of Goa utilises and regulates the water resources to make optimal use of water in the state. Get information on major projects such as Salauli, Anjunem and Tillari. See information about minor projects on surface, ground water and western ghat. Information on schemes like Sea Erosion, Hydrology Project II, Flooding at Sanquelim and Rain Water Harvesting are given. Users can find information about schemes on flood control and post monsoon harvesting. Access to water policy, Central Water Commission (CWC) and water management are provided. Information related to department's administration, organisational structure, photo gallery, tenders, citizen charter, RTI, list of PIO and APIO are also available.

Website of Goa State Pollution Control Board

Goa State Pollution Control Board is a statutory board responsible for controlling water and air pollution. Find information about the rules related to hazardous waste, biomedical waste and municipal solid waste. Information about various Acts like Environment Protection Act and Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act etc. is given. Users can also access information about compliance forms required by the board from different industries and authority. One can also view applications cleared by the board. Information related to the functions of the