

LAUREN SALITAN

CAREER READY

Summary

Marine Biology Student at the New York Harbor School. Excellent communication skills with lots of practice in public services and child care. Passionate about the environment and teaching others. Enthusiastic, highly-motivated, driven, energetic, aware, team leader. Extremely interested in Political Science- especially environmental policy.

Education Experience And Achievements

New York Harbor School 2015-present (4.0 GPA)

- Maritime Policy Class 2015-2017
 - American Sign Language classes 2014-2015
 - Marine Biology Research Program (@NY Harbor School) 2016-Present
 - 18 College Credits:
 1. Intermediate Science Research, 2 credits (SUNY Albany) 2017
 2. Intermediate Methods of Research, 4 credits (SUNY Albany) 2017-2018
 3. Oceanography, 3 credits (SUNY Stony Brook) 2017-2018
 4. Advanced Science Research, 2 credits (SUNY Albany) 2018
 5. Advanced Methods of Research, 4 credits (SUNY Albany) 2018-2019
 6. NOCTI Natural Resources, 3 credits 2019
 - NYCSEF Certifications (2019)
 - Second (2017) and third (2018) place winner in Marine Biology Research Symposium
-

Work Experience

- Babysitting weekly for multiple families 2012-present
 - Tutoring weekly for multiple families 2016-Present
 - Lodge Worker at Talarik Creek Lodge, Iliamna, Alaska 2016
 - Waitress at Harriet's Kitchen 2017-Present
 - Summer Camp Counselor at New Country Day Camp, 14 Street Y 2018
-

Internships

- Earth Matter Composting 2016-Present
 - Friends of Governors Island Tour Guide Summer, 2017
 - NYC Audubon Summer, 2017
 - Marine Biology Lab/Field Technician 2017-Present
 - CIVITAS Citizenship, Harbor SEALs Junior Project Manager 2017-2018
 - Billion Oyster Project, Harbor SEALs Senior Project Manager 2018-present
-

Volunteer Experience

- Zero Waste Lunch Monitor
 - Oyster Cage Building for the Billion Oyster Project
-

Clubs and Activities

- Film Club
- Harbor Corps Club
- Waterfront club
- Sailing, 7 years
- Harbor SEALs
- Gay-Straight Alliance
- Student Council

