KEY MOMENTS

Pick 3 key moments that speak to large issues at stake in the text. Look for realizations, developments, resolutions, etc. These moments must stand for something larger in the lives of the characters or the development of the story. Rank them in order of importance.

|   | Describe the moment. Include a key quote and page number. | Why is this moment significant? | How does this moment shape, or connect to, larger themes in the work? |
|---|-----------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 |                                                |                      |                                                            |

MAIN CHARACTERS

Pick the 2 most important characters to write about below. (For longer works, you may want to include more on a separate piece of paper.)
