

Downtown

Day

Brunch at Ocho Take a ride down to El Mercado for quality Mexican artifacts, clothing & Art. Get a good look at the Riverwalk by taking a ride on a river cruise (you can even byob). Visit some of downtowns most historic landmarks like The Alamo and the Menger Bar, where Teddy Roosevelt recruited the Rough Riders.

Night Head to one of the oldest establishments in town, The Esquire Tavern, for dinner. Afterwards, go for an expertly crafted cocktail in their “speak easy” basement bar. Treat yourself to a show at the Majestic Theatre. Stretch your legs after and talk a walk to see the Alamo at night. Head back to Havana for the perfect nightcap in our basement bar.

Southtown + King William District

Day Catch a ride to Liberty Bar for breakfast. Rent a B-Cycle and tour the historic homes in King William. Head to the Friendly Spot, one of the SA's favorite spots for enjoying sunshine, beer and food. On the way back to the hotel, check out La Villita to shop folk art, paintings, and textiles made by local artisans.

Night Head over to Alamo Eat Streets Bar to catch a sports game and grab a bite at one of the many food trucks. Take a ride to Blue Star Complex for a night cap at a local favorite, Bar 1919 If it's First Friday you're in luck, head down to Bethoveen's Beer Garden to experience San Antonio's German culture, drink beer & people watch. Afterwards, walk the surrounding streets to visit vendors and hop around different galleries.

The Pearl Brewery

Day Grab some coffee over at Local and check out Pearl's Farmers Market. The Market is a great place to take the family and even the dog can enjoy a park to roam. Take a look at all the different shops around the Brewery. Head to Southerleigh for the best seafood and grits. Take a short walk to the San Antonio Museum of Art

Night The Pearl is known for it's superior restaurants - choose any to go to and you shouldn't be disappointed. After dinner, Jazz, Tx to check out some live music. Covers will vary. Go for a night cap and a game of pool at Sternwirth, located in the Hotel Emma.

North Saint Mary's + Broadway

Day This area is one of the best for families and outdoor activities. There's the Doseum for kids or hit up one of the oldest (and most charming) amusement parks in the country, Kiddie Park. Head to Tycoon Flats for their famous burgers and family friendly atmosphere. Visit the historic Japanese Tea Gardens & Breckenridge Park.

Night North Saint Mary's (AKA The Strip) has a vibrant night life and is known for good barhopping. Start with dinner at Chisme and work your way down The Strip where you'll find live music on every corner. Stop in to Joey's, locals favorite pool hall for a Cheer's vibe and cheap pool tables. Further down Saint Mary's you'll run into Squeezebox, the spot in San Antonio for live music and dancing. After a night running around, stop into Cullums Atta Girl Ice House for some low SA's best late night eats.

In San Antonio for one night...

Brunch at Ocho Take a ride down to El Mercado for quality Mexican artifacts, clothing & Art. Next go to the Friendly Spot, one of the SA's favorite spots for enjoying sunshine, beer and food. Visit the Pearl Brewery to check out the different shops and local artisans. Stop in to Cured at The Pearl for Happy Hour. Catch an early show at Jazz, Tx before they charge a cover. Head to The Esquire Tavern downtown for dinner. End at the Havana Lounge for the perfect night cap.
