

The U.K. has its 3rd prime minister in 7 weeks after the resignation of Liz Truss after she wasn't able to gain support by her own party. Rishi Sunak now takes over at a time where the U.K.'s economy is very unstable.

The baseball World Series is set between the Astros and the Phillies after both teams got through the playoffs without any trouble.

The NBA season has begun with the Golden State Warriors, last year's champion starting with a disappointing record of 2-2 with the team getting blown out by 30 by the phoenix suns.

China's leader Xi Jinping delivered a disturbing message to the world in his opening address to the Congress. He said that he would make China stronger while emphasizing on retaking Taiwan.

Staying on the topic of disturbing news, the rapper Kanye West said during a interview that he had an obsession with Adolf Hitler and wanted to name his new album after the Nazi leader. His account has already been blocked on Facebook and we will be sure to hear about him in the news.