The PPV Manifesto

Formerly known as the Jakyl Manifesto (and then the Jakyl-XIII Manifesto after some changes by XIII in June 2014), this list documents the order of the special event PPVs in the UCA along with their gimmicks. The current iteration of the Manifesto was created in June 2016. PPVs happen every 3 weeks except for Epopmania, which is preceded by a 4 week period. This list starts with the first PPV after Epopmania.

1.) Pandemonium. At this PPV, the MELEE MAYHEM title match will main event and must feature Heavyweight competitors. It can either be a multi-man match or a huge one-on-one contest. Every match is a gimmick match, either predetermined or decided randomly, MELEE MAYHEM style.

2.) Mountain of Mayhem. The MELEE MAYHEM Champion will be able to trade in their title for a shot at the Undisputed Title. The title match must be a gimmick match. If they do choose to cash in, a MELEE MAYHEM rules tournament will be held to crown a new MELEE MAYHEM champion at the PPV. If they don't, the Undisputed Title #1 contender will be determined some other way, but the match will always feature a stipulation.

- 3.) Lethal Lottery. 3-day show featuring two rounds of randomly-selected teams and then a Battle Royal featuring all the users who won both of their tag matches. Winner gets a title shot at...
- 4.) Modern Warfare. The WarGames PPV. Winning WarGames team gets complete booking power for the next 3 weeks.
- 5.) Night of Champions. Belts can only be challenged for by previous holders.
- 6.) King of the Board. Only non-HW champs! Basically a KotR Tournament held over the weeks prior to the PPV, with the semi-finals and finals taking place at the actual show in a 2-day event. Winner gets the "King" title for a year and a title shot at...
- 7.) Summer Spectacular. No real gimmick, just the Summerslam of the schedule.
- 8.) Custom PPV. There is no set guideline for how this show needs to be run.
- 9.) Bloodbath. This is where the Blood Sport tag team match co-main events with the Undisputed Championship match. Many teams of two face off in a specialized kind of Battle Royal elimination match.
- 10.) UCAnniversary. The UCA's Anniversary show. Title shots for each division are determined in the ways they were originally for the first ever Champions. (Tournament for Heavy/Tag, Elimination Chase for Middles, Battle Royal for Lights, Lockbox for MM)
- 11.) The CamPAIN Trail. Match stipulations and some title challengers are decided by polls in the build-up to this event. This will feature two multi-man matches featuring the participants in the Bound For Whiskey series, with bonus points on offer for the winners of the two matches. The stipulations are decided by pre-match polls.
- 12.) Bound for Whiskey. A 2-day event and the finale of the Bound For Whiskey series. Winner gets a title shot at...
- <https://docs.google.com/document/d/1SiCrGsfhUTTrICB9m5HiUPRksacr7jHqhlb9MG8JLa8/edit?usp=sharing>
- 13.) Serious Survival. It's basically Survivor Series.
- 14.) Exile. Volunteers for title shots are taken, first-come-first-serve, but should you lose you will be exiled from title shots until after EpopMania (unless you win the UCA Rumble).
- 15.) Ultimatum. I'm sure you know what the Ultimatum Tournament is about, but just in case you don't - it's a single elimination tournament with a twist. Every time you win, you are offered an Ultimatum in the form of prizes. If you accept the Ultimatum, you drop out of the tournament and the person you defeated advances instead of you.

16.) The UCA Rumble. Self-explanatory.

17.) Epopmania. The Granddaddy of them all.

Hall of Fame

Around the time of every Epopmania since Epopmania II, there has been a “Hall of Fame” vote. As you might expect, this is designed to recognise the people who have contributed significantly to UCA, whether that be through success in competition or in terms of work done as an admin, or both. Tag-teams may also enter, and, since 2013, stables have also been allowed to enter the hall.

Annual Tournaments/Significant Events

Events Explained

Ultimatum

This tournament usually begins at the end of the year, with the final taking place at the “Ultimatum” PPV, usually in early January. The tournament is a standard, bracket-style single-elimination tournament with a twist: at the end of each match, the winner is offered a choice (an “ultimatum”) - they may either advance to the next round, or take an offered prize. These prizes can be anything from a shot at a lower-tier title to a divisional promotion. The prize for the winner varies; nowadays, it is usually a Money in the Bank briefcase, but it has also been for a HW title shot at Epopmania or for the HW title itself.

UCA Rumble

One of the most popular yearly events, the Rumble match is very similar to the WWE’s famous Royal Rumble. It is a 30 or 40-man over the top rope battle royal, where 2 competitors will start in the ring on 10 points, and every half an hour a new competitor is added. Other users may hurt those involved in the match, and when a user reaches 0 points, they could be eliminated. The eliminated user will have a five-minute period to “skin the cat” (post a message with a XX:XX:00 timestamp), in which case they will be back in the match with 2 points. If a user in the match scores an elimination, they receive a 1-point bonus. The match usually features surprise entrants, such as long-retired superstars or BEAR, and every user will have a unique titantron (a youtube link) to mark their entrance - usually a theme song of some sort. The winner faces the Undisputed Heavyweight Champion at that year’s Epopmania, the UCA’s biggest show of the year.

Standard rules for the Rumble match, as posted when the topic is made, can be found here.

Lethal Lottery

As detailed in the Jakyl Manifesto, this is a 3-day event featuring every UCA participant. They are assigned random tag-teams (if there is an odd number, a three-man team will be created or an NPC will be added (such as TagTeamTeddy in 2012). The winners of the tag matches will then move on to day 2, where they will be placed into another random draw. The users who win their two tag matches then advance to day 3, which features an over-the-top-rope battle royal featuring all those who won their two tag matches. The winner of this battle royal then faces the Undisputed Champion for the title at Modern Warfare, the next PPV.

Modern Warfare

This is the UCA’s WarGames equivalent. Two or sometimes three teams of four compete. Two members of each team start in the ring, before a second member of one team is added after a set period of time. After another few hours, the second member of the other team is added, until eventually each team will have all four members of their team in the ring. Users will be able to vote for a specific team once in each time period. The winning team will gain the right to book the company until the next PPV, Night of Champions.

An example of the entrance times and layout of a standard two-team Modern Warfare match can be found here.

King of the Board

This is the simplest of all the booking gimmicks. As with WWE's King of the Ring, this is a single-elimination tournament, but in UCA it features every user who has yet to win a Heavyweight Championship. Until 2013, the PPV was a one-day event, but it is now held over two days, with the semi-finals taking place on Day 1 and the final match taking place on Day 2. The winner will be known as "King" for the remainder of the year, and gets a title shot at Summer Spectacular (as of 2015, a guaranteed one on one match). The new King generally has a good chance of victory at the event, with the majority of Kings being successful in their title match.

Bound For Whiskey Series

This is a multi-month series of matches held in a Round Robin format, with the matches taking place on Ruin, Combat and Eruption as well as special events, and a 9-point bonus match happening at the CampAIN Trail. The number of users involved varies from 10 to 12. Users face each other once, with 5 points awarded for a win, 7 for a win by 5 or more votes, and 3 each for a tied match. After the Round Robin is over, the top users in the table are entered into a final tournament, to be held at the Bound For Whiskey PPV over two days. The winner of the round robin phase has the right to choose his semi final opponent. Full results for all Bound For Whiskey series held so far can be found below, in the "Winners by Year" section - just click "Bound For Whiskey Series". An all-time league table can be found here.

Spammy Awards

Since 2012, UCA has marked the end of the year with the Spammy Awards. The UCA's annual end of year awards ceremony, features past users and NPCs presenting awards in various categories. Voting usually lasts around 3 weeks, with the admins keeping track of potential nominees throughout the year and users having additional input, before users are then asked to send votes in each category. The "Winners by Year" section features the winners of arguably the most prestigious categories, "Superstar of the Year" and "Newcomer of the Year", though at the bottom of each year you can also find a link to all previous Spammy Award winners.

Match of the Month

In 2015, a “match of the month” poll was held at the first event of any given month. This poll allowed UCA users to vote on what they think the best match was that month. The 12 winners, as well as any runners-up the UCA users decided were worthy of contention, formed the nominations for the “Match of the Year” Spammy Award in 2015. Nominations and winners are kept in a separate file - click below.

Discussion Topic Opening Post

What IS UCA? In 51 words or less:

It's an ongoing wrestling-based Epop competition, but you don't need to be interested in either to have "success" or fun here. Trash talk, start feuds, challenge people to matches and whatever else. We also have gimmick matches! If you want in, just say you're joining and vote when you can.

tl;dr version of this post

This post is pretty long, but the bare bones are: you sign up, we will book you in matches against other people based on what division you are in, how strong you are, and who you're feuding against. You can affect what matches you are in by challenging people to matches, forming your own tag-teams, and trash-talking other users. There's two shows a week - Ruin and Combat - and every 3 weeks there's a more important "pay-per-view", with the biggest PPV event being Epopmania in late February. We try and ensure everybody has a match at least once a week. For more information about the B8UCA, check the links in the next post.

More info:

What do I do?

The only thing you have to do to be a UCA competitor and keep your place as a competitor is vote on UCA cards every now and then. It's more fun for everybody the more people get involved, though, so you're also encouraged to cut promos, start storylines, form alliances and tag teams, and talk smack in the topics.

So there are no requirements at all?

If you don't vote for a while - usually three or four weeks - you'll probably purge from our roster, but other than that, you have nothing to worry about!

What's the schedule like? How long until this crashes and burns?

There are two "TV" shows a week - Ruin (posted on Monday or Tuesday nights) and COMBAT (Wednesdays or Thursdays) - shows are named after when voting ENDS, rather than when it begins. In addition, we have a more important "PPV" show every three weeks, posted late Saturday nights. We generally stick to that schedule, and even when we don't, UCA has outright missed only a handful of shows in its eight-year history.

What's this about B8UCA ending?

We've decided that the time has come to wrap things up. With participation dwindling, (and indeed B8 itself getting a bit slower) we wanted to end it with one big last push. B8UCA will be shutting down after Epopmania X in early 2018, so make the most of the time you have left! We're going to try to pull out all the stops to make that a fitting grand finale, so grab your friends and be a part of the last hurrah!

How often will I fight?

The idea is that everybody gets at least one match a week, ideally. The more successful and active users will tend to get more matches.

Who's in charge?

Eaedwards and Tom Bombadil are co-admins, with eaed booking Ruin and Tom booking Combat. We also have some admin help from a variety of volunteers. The project was initially founded by Icehawk and Jakyl, passed on to Tom Bombadil, then to Football and XIII as co-owners, then to Solio, then back to XIII, and finally to the team of Tom and eaedwards.

What's the structure like?

Divisions dictate which singles title people are most likely to fight for - apart from the MELEE MAYHEM title, which is open to all.

There are two "divisions" for singles wrestlers - Heavyweight and Lightweight. There's also a tag-team division, so feel free to partner up with a friend and have a crack at that. You can still compete for singles titles while being in a tag-team, too.

If you beat somebody in the division above, you can promote, though usually you will need to further prove your worth in that division to show it wasn't a fluke. It's a loose sorting - people change divisions frequently, especially since we try to keep them roughly balanced in numbers. Likewise, a string of poor performances puts you in danger of a "demotion" match which will see you move down a division.

How do I join?

Just say so, here or in the main UCA topic. We're always taking new people, and we're especially eager to see alumni return as we approach the end.

61. Wrestling Revolution 3D Match (Tom or somebody records a simulation in Wrestling Revolution 3D, with stipps of the recorder's choosing. May be rerolled at admin discretion/convenience- it takes time to do and not everybody is created yet)

The following matches are also gimmick matches, but are unsuitable for MELEE MAYHEM title matches unless agreed on beforehand:

Submission Match (loser leaves UCA for a set amount of time if he doesn't submit)

I Quit Match (Submission Match with no disqualifications)

Shopping Cart Match (Rules here)

Mario Kart Double Dash (tag-team version of Mario Kart - each team member can get items that contribute to an overall team score)

Money In The Bank Guidelines

-A Money in the Bank contract is valid from the event it was won until the corresponding event the next year. For example, if a contract is won at Epopmania IV, it is valid until Epopmania V, or if it is won at Summer Spectacular 2012 it is valid until Summer Spectacular 2013.

-There are two ways of cashing in the Money in the Bank contract. These will henceforth be known as the "RVD method" and the "Edge method".

-The "RVD method" is when the holder announces in advance the title he or she will challenge for and the event the match will take place at. That match would then be added to the card of whichever event was chosen.

-The "Edge method" is more complex but far more common and involves the Money in the Bank contract holder taking advantage of an already "wounded" Champion.

-If somebody cashes in Money in the Bank after a match involving the holder of their selected title, a new topic is made and the challenger starts with whatever votes the Champion's opponent had. The Champion starts with 0.

For example: TheKnightOfNee, as UCA Champion, loses a title match to Chronic1000 7-6, making Chronic the new UCA Champion. At this point, JeffreyRaze cashes in his Money in the Bank contract on Chronic. Because Chronic's opponent, Nee, had 6 votes, JeffreyRaze starts the match with a 6-0 lead.

-Cash-ins can be declared within six hours of an event ending to get the voting bonus, before or after.

-If the MitB holder was competing in a match on the same card as the champion when they cashed in, their advantage is halved.

-If the Champion was participating in a tag-team match, the number of votes the MitB holder starts with is divided by how many competitors were on the Champions' team. In a normal tag match, it would be divided by 2, in a 3-on-3 tag match it would be decided by 3, etc. If the divided number is not whole, it rounds up or down to the nearest whole number. If the divided number is X.5, it rounds up.

For example: TheKnightOfNee, as UCA Champion, teams with Sess and wins 9-8. JeffreyRaze cashes in his contract. The 8 votes they conceded would be halved, meaning the MitB holder would start the resulting title match with 4 votes.

-In a multi-man match (a Triple Threat or Fatal Four-Way match, for example), the highest opponent score is used.

For example: TheKnightOfNee, as UCA Champion, faces both Sess and Chronic1000 in a Triple Threat match. TheKnightOfNee gets 9 votes, Chronic1000 gets 7 and Sess gets 5. JeffreyRaze chooses this time to cash in. In this case, JeffreyRaze would start the match with 7 votes, because Chronic had the higher score of Nee's two opponents.

-In the event of an Edge-style cash-in, the match is held in a new topic and the normal rules apply (refer to the start of this document for more information).

-The cash-in must be declared in the discussion topic or the topic of the event which they seek to take advantage of - preferably both.

-Situations where the MitB holder chooses to cash in after the champion has just competed in a match with a stipulation that scores in something other than pure number of votes (e.g. a Boxing or Smash Bros. match) will be dealt with on a case-by-case basis.

MitB Cash-Ins since 2012

JeffreyRaze cashed in on Maniac64© for the HW and IB titles after Summer Spectacular 2012 on 7/22/12

mcflubbin cashed in on GTM© for the Undisputed Title after GTM's hardcore match with Korayashi on the 11/26/13 edition of Ruin

Whiskey_Nick cashed in on GTM© for the Undisputed Title after GTM's win over Korayashi in a Mudcage match at Ultimatum on 1/5/14

Sir Chris cashed in on Korayashi© for the Undisputed Title after Korayashi's win over Stevie3V in an Inferno Match at Pandemonium on 3/14/15

DpOblivion cashed in on Sultan(c) for the Undisputed Title after Sultan's defense over XIII at Ultimatum on 1/5/17

Davidponte cashed in on Wigs(C) for the Undisputed Title after Wigs had won it from Tom at Epopmania on 2/26/18
