

Privacy Policy

TOV LAMENA has developed the Fall Balance application as a free product, provided at no cost and intended for use “as is.” This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and protect your personal information when you interact with the app. By using Fall Balance, you agree to the practices described below. Any personal data we collect is used solely to operate, maintain, and improve the app. We do not share your personal information with third parties except as described in this Policy. Capitalized terms not defined herein have the meanings given to them in our Terms and Conditions, available within the Fall Balance app.

Information We Collect and How We Use It

To deliver and enhance app features, we may request certain personally identifiable information. Any such information is collected and used in accordance with this Policy. In addition, the app may integrate third-party services that collect and process data independently. For instance, the app uses:

- Google Play Services

Log Data

In case of an error within the app, we may collect technical information such as your device’s IP address, model, operating system version, app configuration at the time of the issue, timestamps, and other diagnostic details through third-party analytics tools. This “Log Data” helps us identify and fix technical problems.

Cookies

Cookies are small files stored on your device by websites or services. While the app itself does not directly use cookies, certain integrated third-party tools may rely on them for analytics or performance optimization. You can disable or manage cookies through your browser settings, though doing so may affect some app functionality.

Third-Party Service Providers

We may engage third-party companies to:

- Provide and maintain the Service
- Perform tasks on our behalf

- Ensure smooth operation of the app
- Monitor and analyze app usage

These providers only receive the data necessary to perform their functions. They are contractually obligated to protect your information and are prohibited from using it for any other purpose.

Security

We use industry-standard measures to protect your personal information. However, please note that no method of data transmission or electronic storage over the internet is completely secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute protection.

Links to Other Websites

The app may contain links to external websites or services not operated by us. If you access a third-party site, please review its privacy policy. We are not responsible for the content, privacy practices, or data handling of any third-party websites or services.

Children's Privacy

Our app is not intended for children under the age of 13, and we do not knowingly collect personal information from them. If we become aware that we have received such information, we will delete it promptly. Parents or guardians who believe their child may have shared personal data with us should contact us immediately.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. We encourage you to review this page periodically for any changes. Updates become effective immediately after being posted.

Effective Date: January 5, 2025
