

Orin - Awakening Your Spiritual Power: Becoming Your Divine Self

Spiritual power comes from knowing the truth of any situation. Truth is a very important gift of consciousness to receive from your Divine Self. In this course you will explore the truth that there is only one power, that of the Divine Self. You will discover what it means to live this truth as you open to the realization that nothing can have power over you.

With this understanding, you can release the illusion that there is anything to fight against. You know that when you are in contact with your Divine Self, no thoughts, beliefs, memories, people, feelings, obstacles, situations, or outside circumstances can stop you from creating a life that reflects the unlimited potential of your Divine Self. There can be no power in anything of the material world, for the only power is that of Spirit, the omnipotent Divine Self within you.

This course continues the expansion of consciousness taught in the other two albums in this series. Orin's journeys in this course assist you in further developing the consciousness of your Divine Self. This awareness allows you to know even more your true identity as a Divine Self, a truth that assists you in being even more effective at clearing energy.
