

LISTENING SKILLS STD FIVE

Mafulu and Mwanaidi lived in Mtwara Region. Mafulu was eight years old and Mwanaidi was eleven years old. Their father died when they were very young. They lived with their mother. Her name was Winnie. She was a kind woman. She provided her children with all their basic needs. She cooked for them. She bought them beautiful clothes. She also took them to school. Mafulu was in Standard Two and Mwanaidi was in standard Five. They always woke up early in the morning and helped their mother with morning chores. They cleaned the house and fetched water. They also washed dishes such as plates, glasses, cooking pans, cups and bowls. Their mother liked their good behavior.