

WORK OF THE WEEK

(Monday 24 - Friday 28 February)

Reception - Year 2
Form	Name	Subject
R	Max Ostrowski-Carpenter	Fantastic use of phonic knowledge when writing about his half term.
1H	Ted Jeffries	Amazing descriptive recount of the rainbow fish.
1M	Max Mulholland	A beautifully written account about the Rainbow Fish.
2S	Gabriel Stoute	Excellent work on an independent reading comprehension.
2W	Monty Roberts	For his presentation of his squashed Banana Experiment.

Year 3 - Year 6
Form	Name	Subject
3B	Freddie Aram	English - For coordinating conjunctions work and comprehension.
3G	Aidan Gern-Gross, Alvin Paul and Hugo De Jager	Maths - For brilliant collaborative work when understanding fractions during Maths.
4C	Archie Milne	Art - For excellent illustrations towards his 'Chrysalis' story.
4G	Daniel Chen	Science - For excellent recall of States of Matter facts in a test.
4H	Charlie Yeulett	History - Lovely careful work on a map to show the journey of the Spanish Armada.
5M	Tom Hickson	Geography - Great preparation work regarding preparing for an Earthquake.
5V	Toby Carter	MFL - French for a great piece of work on a shopping conversation and a follow-up role-play.
Y6	Max Skelton (Mr Butterfield)	Maths - For an accurately drawn miles and kilometers conversion table.
Y6	Josh Sharma (Ms Oakes)	Maths - Fantastic use of a bar model in a tricky measure problem solving question.
Y6	George Norris (Mrs Henry)	Maths - For persevering to understand converting measures.