

Kimberley Nordic Club Biathlon Range Rental Terms and Conditions

The KNC Biathlon range is an RCMP approved range for biathlon use only. Use of the KNC Biathlon range for individual training, courses, team training, and/or competitions must be approved and booked in advance to avoid any potential conflicts between user groups. KNC Biathlon programs take precedence over other user groups.

Terms and Conditions for Range Rentals:

1. Prior to submitting a range rental request users must complete the following:
 - a. Read through KNC Biathlon Range Safety Rules
 - b. Read through KNC Biathlon Emergency Action Plan
 - c. Attend an In-Person Introduction to Biathlon Range Use Session to understand: range rules, procedure to open and close the range, and range/facility procedures (target operation, range traffic, EAP, warming hut)
 - d. Determine a Range Safety Officer and attach proof of Possession and Acquisition License with the range booking request.
2. To submit a range rental request go to kimberleynordic.org/kncbookings
3. Once range rental request is approved, ensure that the below requirements are adhered to:
 - a. All participants must have a valid KNC membership or day pass the day of the rental.
 - b. All participants must have a valid Biathlon Canada Tryout License or membership.
 - c. All participants must pay a range rental fee of $15 per participant.
4. Day of Rental
 - a. Upon arrival at KNC, check in with the Welcome Centre attendant who will confirm your rental reservation, take down your credit card information for a deposit, and provide the "Shooting in Progress" sign as well as the key to the warming hut. The sign must be displayed in the stadium area while the range is in use.

- b. Renters are responsible for range set up and clean up. A $50 clean up fee will be charged if the range is not cleaned up properly. Additional charges will be incurred if any damage is found.
- c. Upon completion of rental, return the key to the Welcome Centre staff and bring the "Shooting in Progress" sign back to the Welcome Centre.
