

In recognition of UHN Spiritual Care Awareness Week (December 4 – 8, 2023), you are invited to an in person screening of A Still Small Voice, a documentary directed by Emmy Award winning Luke Lorentzen, which brings viewers into the world of hospital spiritual care and the patients they support. The documentary follows the yearlong residency journey of an aspiring chaplain (spiritual care practitioner) at Mount Sinai Hospital in New York City during the COVID-19 pandemic.

A Still Small Voice

Friday December 8, 2023 @ 11:00 – 13:00

Princess Margaret Cancer Centre

6th floor Bob Bell Auditorium

Sandwich lunch and refreshments will be provided

11:00 Welcome and Acknowledgements

11:10 A Still Small Voice (93 minute runtime)

12:45 – 13:00 Q & A with Director Luke Lorentzen and David Fleenor, CPE educator

Closing Remarks

Space is limited. Please RSVP no later than Dec. 1/24 by contacting Seema Kapoor:
seema.kapoor@uhn.ca

Sponsored by the Department of Spiritual Care, University Health Network