ORIGINAL CHARACTER RP BLOG.

ABOUT THE ROLEPLAYER?
X E N O

22, they/them, aries disaster

WHAT IS THIS BLOG?

this is is a roleplay blog for an alien original character. this blog is going to be multi-verse, with verses for a variety of content, but for the most part this character's main universe would be sci-fi, seeing as he is not a human. this blog will also be sort of a multi-muse as it will have headcanons and writing from other characters featured in ardaka's story as well. finally, this blog is also mutuals-exclusive and 18+ (no exceptions, sorry) for my own comfort. please respect this. thank you.

DO NOT FOLLOW IF...

you're a bigot. end of story.

CONTENT WARNING.

this blog will feature themes of heavy mental illnesses, themes of war, xenophobia, violence, abuse, and other dark topics. the worst of the worst will be tagged accordingly, but please keep in mind that ardaka and especially the kariians themselves can be quite morbid. do not follow this blog if you cannot take seeing mentions of these things. kariians are very toxic and shitty and i don't tone those aspects of their culture down. (that said: i am entirely aware of how terrible they are. they are evil and xenophobic and awful, generally. they're also not humans and do not have human morals.)

FOLLOWING & UNFOLLOWING.

as for unfollowing, i may unfollow for a variety of reasons including but not limited to: excessive negative posts, unnecessary call outs, excessive political posts (content regarding human rights, such as BLM, Pride, etc, does not qualify as 'political' to me), i do not see us writing together, etc. i'm here to have a good time, not to see stuff that stresses me out.

also, when i follow someone first i will typically unfollow after about a week if we are not mutuals by then. this is because i'd like to keep my dash clean, and i'd rather only follow people interested in writing with me. semi related, if you no longer wish to write with me: soft block me.

ORIGINAL CONTENT.

almost all the content for this character is original. his species' concept and design, his story, and his universe belong to me. the art i post belongs to me as well unless explicitly stated otherwise. please respect that do not take anything from this blog.

SHIPPING.

ardaka's main ship is with vin-robles ; in his main verse, he will refer to vin frequently. it is a ship with years in the making and is very dear to me.

i am a very slow-burn shipper and will take forever to do anything related to it. plotting is all well and good but when it comes to writing, i prefer a ship takes as long as it needs to in order for it to be realistic. this of course means i ship chemistry and if i do not see it working out, i'm not going to push it.

i'd prefer for our characters to just Naturally Click, but if you ship our characters, you're always free to let me know! the worst thing that could happen is that i politely decline.

i will probably only have one ship per verse.

MISCELLANEOUS

i deal with my own mental problems, including depression and pretty bad ADHD which can make writing, drawing and etc very difficult for me. pls be patient! i am very slow. :(

also, i do have a discord. however i prefer to speak through tumblr IMs for a while before adding someone there. this is just for my own security.

there is no password here and i will never send one. just trust that i have read your rules if i follow you.

if you have any problems or concerns regarding me, please just ask me about it. i will not get mad. i will not put you on blast. i simply would prefer to talk things out. thank you.

idk more to come later i guess.
