I only start doing commission after I got payment

You can pay upfront either minimum amount of 50% or full payment, once you have paid, your slot is secured.

Refund policy

- Refund the upfront payment during step 1 if I haven't started working on your commission
- During step 2, the client is able to cancel the commission but I will keep 25% of full payment since I've started working on it.
- Refunding past step 2 is not allowed.

Working time

- The start of production will depend on the production schedule at that time.
- Delivery will take approximately 2-3 weeks after production begins.
- Expected waiting time per commission will be 1-3 months depending on the queue.

Process:

Important note: It will be much easier to work on the commission if the client provided me with detailed briefs and references as much as possible. Once I've started working on your order, the client can request revisions for up to 3 times free of charge per step. After that, I'll have to charge for changes.

Step 1

- Take commission detail via email/discord
- Give client price quote and expected update time
- Send invoice to the client
- I'll receive 50% of the payment before I process further

Step 2

- The client get sketches (can be color sketch)
- If the client approved the sketch and decided to continue, I will receive full payment
- Accept major changes (poses, view angle,....)
- Maximum of sketches can be sent is 3

Step 3

- The client get last update before rendering
- Accept minor changes

Step 4

- The client get finished artwork
