

COURSE CHALLENGE

Background

Any student who is registered in senior high school and who believes that he or she already possesses the knowledge, skills, and attitudes prescribed by the Program of Study for a course, shall be allowed to demonstrate these learnings through special assessment opportunities.

Procedures

1. In dealing with challenges, the procedures and practices outlined in The Guide of Education ECS to Grade 12 shall be followed.
2. Individual high schools shall communicate to parents and students the availability of, and procedures for, course challenges.
