

Course Description / Description de Cours :

In this beginner's class, students will develop language learning skills and a strong foundational understanding of the French language. Students will practice listening, reading, writing, and speaking French. In addition to learning numbers, colors, and the alphabet, students will be able to greet and say farewell to others, discuss the date and time, and exchange personal information. Students will learn how to communicate simply about familiar topics and manage a number of uncomplicated language tasks in familiar situations.

For some learners, language courses can be stressful. Together, we will work to create a positive learning environment!
