Funeral Program

A funeral program is a solemn and essential document that serves as a guide and memorial for those attending a funeral or memorial service. This carefully crafted piece not only provides logistical details about the event but also serves as a tangible tribute to the life and legacy of the deceased.

Typically distributed to mourners upon arrival, the funeral program serves as a roadmap for the proceedings, offering a schedule of events, hymns, prayers, and speakers. It is a tangible connection between the bereaved and the departed, encapsulating the essence of the person being honored. The front cover often features a poignant image of the departed, a visual reminder that this is a commemoration of a unique and cherished individual.

The opening section of the funeral program typically includes basic information about the deceased, such as their full name, date of birth, and date of passing. This section may also include a brief biography or obituary, capturing the key moments and defining characteristics of the person's life. It serves as an opportunity for those in attendance to reflect on the impact the departed had on their lives and the broader community.

The heart of the funeral program lies in the order of service. This section outlines the sequence of events, including prayers, eulogies, readings, and musical interludes. It provides a structure for the mourners, guiding them through the emotional journey of the service. Each element is carefully selected to pay homage to the individual's life and the values they held dear.

In addition to the order of service, the funeral program may include lyrics to hymns or songs that will be performed during the service. This allows attendees to actively participate in the ceremony, lending their voices to the collective expression of grief and remembrance. The choice of music is often deeply personal, reflecting the departed's favorite melodies or pieces that held special significance to them.

Beyond the logistical details, the funeral program often includes space for family and friends to express their condolences and share memories. This section provides a communal space for the grieving to offer support to one another and to collectively celebrate the life of the departed. It becomes a tangible keepsake for those left behind, a document that can be revisited in moments of reflection.

In essence, a funeral program is more than a mere schedule; it is a carefully curated tribute to a life lived, a cherished individual whose memory is etched in the hearts of those who had the privilege of knowing them. As attendees depart the service, the funeral program serves as a poignant memento, a tangible reminder of the collective mourning and celebration that transpired, and a keepsake that preserves the legacy of the departed for generations to come.

Poems of Remembrance

A Poem can go in this area if desired. Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be, A resting place along the road, to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys, Different paths along the way.
We all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place, Far greater than we know.

A CELEBRATION of Life

Betty passed peacefully from this life the morning of July 16th after a gradual decline in health. She was surrounded and supported by her loving family and caregivers during the last days of her life. Betty was born in Rock Springs, WY, but has been a San Franciscan since 1945. In 1971, after raising her four boys and a daughter, Betty, and her husband Ernie, retired in (or move to) beautiful Guerneville, CA where she lived the remainder of her life.
