

Holy Cow! -Script-

Scene opens on a grassy field: Hunter is there looking out into the distance, as Bloxson spots and walks up to him and Bloxson says... **

Bloxson: Oh, hey Hunter, how's it going?

Hunter: It's going fine but it could be better.

Bloxson: Well, what's bad?

Hunter: I mean last night I saw this strange thing out my window, it had a weird thing on its head, and I just don't know what it really was.

Bloxson: Well did you get a good look at it?

Hunter: To me it kinda looked like a big blob, with a thing on its head? And it had wings too, so yeah... That's about as well as I can describe it.

Bloxson: Ok so did it look like Drawing Noises this?

Bloxson shows Hunter the image **
