

THE LEGEND LETTERS PODCAST

The Secret is Out!

I've been working on this project for months now. Hundreds of hours poured into this labor of love.

I've questioned myself many times about whether I should launch it or just forget about it.

I've come very close to calling it off, as I questioned whether the world needs this or if it's just a vanity project.

And after many weeks and months of planning and re-planning, I've decided to go for it.

I MUST see this through. I'm ALL-IN.

I've hired different experts to help me and I'm not skimping on anything.

THE LEGEND LETTERS PODCAST

- Why am I making this podcast?

I exist to help people live their version of legendary. Whether it's through my brand strategy work with companies or coaching people with their personal brand. This is just an extension of my purpose.

- What is it about?

What if we could get an inside look into how the legends among us got to where they are? Could we learn something from their lives to help us with ours? I seek out those who are happy, successful and can teach us something we can apply right away.

- Who is the podcast for?
