

Special Christmas Ornaments

Christmas is near, which means it's time to decorate the tree.

Ornaments should be fun and special to you, lighting you up every time you see them. Christmas is one of my favorite holidays, and M&M's are my favorite candy. Making connections like this make decorating the tree more meaningful and exciting. However, perhaps my favorite thing about ornaments is placing them in just the right spot on the tree with all my loved ones around.

Ornaments are more than just plastic and paint; they bring memories to life year after year, memories filled with love and joy and hope.

So this year, when you unpack your ornaments and place them on the tree, remember all the good times of the past and get excited about all the great times to come!

Happy Holidays, TR!
