

What can we do now?

long version

A summary of the situation as of current.

Due to pressure from the federal Department of Education, KSU is heavily restructuring many student affairs programs targeted towards marginalized individuals. All special interest groups are going to be broadened to This includes but is not limited to the Cultural Awareness Resource Center, Global Village, LGBTQ Resource Center, Unity Center, and Women's Resource Center. This also includes many resources such as Stonewall Housing.

What can we do here?

As recommended by the KSU Division of Student Affairs, RSO's and student-led groups are not held to the same restrictions as the university. Many spaces run by the university are going to have to take
