

1. How do you determine the mood of a story? Which of the following elements would contribute to the mood?

- a. Plot
- b. Theme
- c. Character
- d. Setting
- e. Point of view

2. What is the largest contributing factor to the tone of a story?

- a. Setting
- b. Point of view
- c. Characters
- d. Theme

3. What is Direct Characterization?

4. What is Indirect characterization?

5. What is a flat character?

6. What is a round character?

6. Give an example of an external conflict.

7. What is a dynamic character?

8. What is a static character?

9. Name 3 different types of point of view.

10. Write 2 sentences that are written from the first-person point of view.

11. What is a stock character?

12. Define the word universal in the literary context. Why do you think that themes are universal? Why would an author make them universal?

14. T/F: THE theme of a story can be one single word.

15. T/F: Stock characters are very similar to us, everyday people. Explain.

16. T/F: A theme is the same thing as a moral.

17. What does a theme reveal?

18. What is plot?

19. What is setting?

20. What is climax?

