

Midterm Wars Blog Comments

Hey Sydney!

How neat that you actually experienced that! I have only ever seen this in movies, I never imagined people actually doing something like this in real life. I can definitely see how midterm weeks go a lot smoother. Could you tell us what pranks have been done to you?

Sydney!

This seems like it would be so much fun! Like Yahaira, I have only ever seen this in movies. I think this would take a lot of the stress and anxiety out of midterm week. I would like to know some of the pranks you have done and what pranks have been done to you?

Sydney,

I truly enjoyed reading both of your blog posts. I certainly expanded my culinary world. I had never heard of chicken filet mignon. I will have to give that a try. It sounds delicious. Your "Midterm Wars" post is so well written that it makes me wish I could see the videos of the pranks! I suspect from the comments from your classmates that they would, too!
