ManKinder Testimonials

Without Michael I wouldn't be where I am today! He is in many ways the best networker and connector in the freedom movement that I've ever come across - hands down! In early 2021, I met Michael through a Freedom Cell that I started in our neighborhood, and in 2022, he invited me to attend the Libertis Horizon freedom event which he was helping to produce in San Diego. There I met Michael Joseph, founder of PMAweekly.com and SacredHonorEF.com - both of which I am now a member and partner of, helping hundreds of people take back their rights and their life by exiting the Matrix. It is truly mind-blowing how my life has changed and directed me on my true path, ever since Michael came into my life. Thank you, brother, for everything!

ManKinder.net has started an online community that is wonderful for navigating these interesting times we are now living in. There are inspiring guests who share their insights and offer support to anyone in the group. It has been reassuring that there are things like Freedom Cells that are fully functioning across our world. Sources of information that are not owned by corporations like ICAN network news. I would not have known about these resources or have felt a sense of a supportive community without ManKinder and Michael the founder.

I've had the pleasure to work with and to know Michael Wisnieux. He's an intelligent and charismatic person who has been in unrelenting service to humanity in his own creative outlets for many years. He's also been an advocate for me and my business in its early years, for which I owe a great deal of gratitude. Thank you for your unique leadership in helping me to connect the dots.

For more than two years, while continuing to learn the truth about the world we live in, I searched for like hearted and minded people to collaborate with, in creating a tribe of truth seeking critical thinking individuals who are dedicated to researching and finding doable solutions for the mayhem we are witnessing in the world.

After joining a couple of organizations only to be disappointed, I came across ManKinder, and responded to the founder Michael Wisnieux who reached out to me.

I immediately resonated with the title he chose for his organization; MANKINDER.

ManKinder's mission is to create a kinder world through collaborating with individuals and organizations who hold similar vision: a world of love, kindness, gratitude, compassion, integrity, and peace, which leaves little to no room for fear and other heavy emotions and feelings to exist.

As a shamanic teacher and healing practitioner I find ManKinder's vision to be fabulously aligned with the shamanic way of life which holds everything as sacred and everyone in their highest potential.

We believe that the essence of mankind is pure love, and the way to express that essence is kindness and compassion.

I find Michael to be a man of high integrity (a required characteristic for me), who holds great love for humanity, and who allows that love to guide him in his search for the best ways to help and support those seeking truth, freedom, and peace.

Collaborating with Michael is quite inspiring and fun (because we are fun loving people), and I'm continually learning from others in this network, as well as sharing with them what I've been learning.

I encourage anyone who is looking for a freedom loving community focused on solutions, to join the ManKinder Network. Together we will pave a path of love and gratitude in a world of peace, freedom, and joy.

Be ManKinder!

ANGELA HANNA TESTIMONIAL

As I go outside, back to the sanctity of the shade, and stop to rest on Dook's favorite chair, tears of Joy and Love stream down my face. The ManKinder Movement crosses my mind. Many ask what is this network all about? I myself wasn't sure at first. I knew in my heart that I belong with the members. I knew they all executed a kindness that most do not take the time to see. I am glad that I chose to take the time and get to know myself.

I am the newest ManKinder CoHost. I have been going through some resolving circumstances. I had some conundrums and strange things happening in my life.

Michael the founder was able to help me stand up for myself very professionally and gave me the gift of his great words and skills expertise. Not to mention his time. My career path and associations quickly changed. At my new job, I am happily earning twice what I was. Previously, I was running three companies under extreme stress and disrespect.

Azmyth, a long time friend and confidant of Michael, took time out of his busy schedule and spoke with me through telephone. In the hour that I needed to hear a friend and have a unique perspective shared he was there. He has now gifted to me a cell-phone camera gimbal, to improve my videography! Orit with all of her wisdom and magical abilities gave me the gift of friendship and Ceremony. She is a true heart living example of friendship and caring. Chris Toussaint, the man who drove from Los Angeles to visit me in Tonopah AZ. We shared an experience unlike anything else. We had amazement of great food, owls and the full magnitude of human experience. We shared kind words and some hugs. I know that he will always be there with his light to guide the truth forward. I am so grateful for all you coming into my life. I have so many things to thank on the way to get to this point I can not explain how much love I feel. That is the ManKinder Way.

ANGELA HANNA PROMOTIONAL

True Friends are hard to come by. The ones that will make time out of their day and help you write a very professional response to a degraded bullshit story someone thought was correct. A person who will make time to talk to you on the phone in your hour of need. A friend who makes space for a ceremony with an owl and is in charge of the timer. A friend who drives to visit in person and smiles through the horrendous treatment received from another. A true friend who takes you out to shop for new outfits and doesn't allow you to buy a single one. Not to mention the lunch. Anyway that is what all of us need and want in our lives I think. How about the associate/friend who sends you an apology letter after the truth is spoken.

How does all this happen?

Well I can tell you that is the way to be.

I know I live the ManKinder Way. I belong to this ManKinder Network of like minded souls from around the world. Where each and everyone one of us lives with compassion in our hearts, trust in our bones, faith in our eyes and some utter stubbornness to balance it out. So if you are ready to live in a kinder community come join us Friday Nights. We have numerous guests and speakers. We discuss all topics. Come along for some elevated theories and facts and let our networking get you into the right community for you.

Michael is a fantastic teacher.
He is VERY comprehensive and will take a deep-dive on your desired topic of choice, just ask him.
Likewise, his historical knowledge of photography is second to none.
I always enjoy learning something new and unexpected when working with Michael.
If you are interested in learning photography from the beginning or expanding your existing knowledge, Michael is your teacher.

Michael has taken some of the best pictures and videos of me and my bands over the years. He's one of the best, both as a photographer and videographer. He also did a lot to further my career/hobby as a videographer by teaching me lighting, camera angles, depth of field tricks, etc.

I met Michael through a meet-up group. In that day of getting to know each other through this group, I noticed that he conducts himself in a very calming and pleasant way. He had then followed up with me via social media, asking me about my website. I told him I am in the process of building it. Subsequently he offered for me to come over and he can help me on it. I thought he knew and was well adapted on the platform I was on. But realized he was more just being open with his willingness and space. He was a great person to bounce ideas off of. Very open and receptive to who I was. I was there for a few hours on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday! He was patient polite kind and respectful and it was a wonderful delight to get to know him. A bit talkative and I wasn't being as productive in getting my site done because a lot of talking happened. But my intention was as much of getting to know the person and the character I was with and connecting as well and I was being freer with the idea of just working on my site. And I am glad I did. He is a very calming, gentle, kind natured person and someone who is an exceptional listener, supporter and conversationalist. And I must say that he is extremely patient and understanding. I accidently took his cord and he had such a gentle approach about letting me know, because I got confused in what part was mine vs his. And I can't help but truly appreciate a person with that much grace and understanding. Michael is also someone who is very open-hearted and building a beautiful movement to unify mankind. Which I greatly and dearly appreciate as it has been all about the heart governance I am building through my work as well. So it was beautiful to connect to another creator in that way. ManKinder is a beautiful reflection of the networking grace that Michael already has. It was truly a great and lovely experience to get to know him. I truly wish him well in all his endeavors especially the ManKinder Movement.

Hi, Michael!
This is my Thank You Letter of gratitude and appreciation for great 8 month period of working with you and your company WIZNU.com.
I also really enjoyed our in-depth conversations and research on how to better our life and life of Humanity in general.

One of my biggest admiration also your unparalleled attention to details of creative processes and meaningful, high standard quality output, like your artful and beautiful photography work and filming, great vocal work on tunes we worked on together during this period.

Thank you also for friendly, supportive creative atmosphere you provided for me during this time with Ginger, Steve and Morena!

It tremendously helped me to grow as a person and more and more inspire me to continue work I love and do in my life.

I look forward to collaborate with you in future and wish you the best!

Basically, Michael saved my life.

I can attest to Michael's skills in team leadership and personal-success coaching - that's what he's done for me! Since our friendship evolved into professional collaboration, my social network has expanded exponentially, and we've co-created the opportunities for my lifelong goals to become realized. What can I say, but Thank You, Michael!

My heartfelt thanks to your God given gift of not only capturing my physical appearance but also simultaneously encouraging my higher spiritual self to be displayed in our photo shoot (which aired on Fox News' Hannity and Colmes cablecast on 9.8.06). You and your partner, Chris Gahran, had less than 24 hours to pull off a phenomenal shoot, which was accomplished with the highest integrity and positive results, despite the extraordinarily tight TV deadline.

What strikes me most about the successful shoot is the way in which you approach your clients, Michael. The relaxation and meditation done prior to the actual shoot, along with your encouragement of me and playing of my favorite CD's put me more at ease; all this immediately helped to buttress my higher spiritual self and ultimately empowered me to expose my true self through your sensitive and trained eyes, and state-of-the-art equipment. All of these multifaceted components of your exquisite photographic expertise separates you from other photographers.

I have since received multiple compliments on your portrait of me; and rest assured I have and will continue to send all of my professional and personal contacts to your studio – so that all of my associates can ultimately be assisted with their personal and professional photographic needs by you and Chris Gahran, who are simply stated... extraordinary and overtly gifted artistic photographers in the Los Angeles area. It was truly a pleasurable investment!

Met a wonderful photographer and fellow multidisciplinary artist Sunday after attending Agape with Michael Beckwith. We went to visit Michael Wiznu Wisnieux downtown LA; introduced by Chris Toussaint; with whom together with our friend BarbaG, took a ride on the newly built and opened Expo Rail Line. It took us from Santa Monica to Downtown LA where Michael's awesome studio/venue is maintained. I think he and Master photographer Robert Reiff, of Magiclight Studios, would make for cool collaborations. I'm thinking Michael's venue would be a great location to re-start up V.A.R.I.O.U.S. Media Ink: The Visionary Artists Showcase and Networking Events again.
