Activity: Think of the social structures in Australian society and the social interactions in a specific situation that might contribute to the marginalisation of a group. Then consider what social changes need to be made to ensure social inclusion.

Marginalised group	Macro - Social structures	Micro - Social interactions	Social change