

Nominal Dingus' Exploits: Sexual Assault / Exploitation, and being an ass

All information showcased was approved by the victim to be shown, some information will be censored per the victims safety and request, if you have more information regarding this, please reach out and know you are not alone, please do not go out of your way to harass anyone that is mentioned here

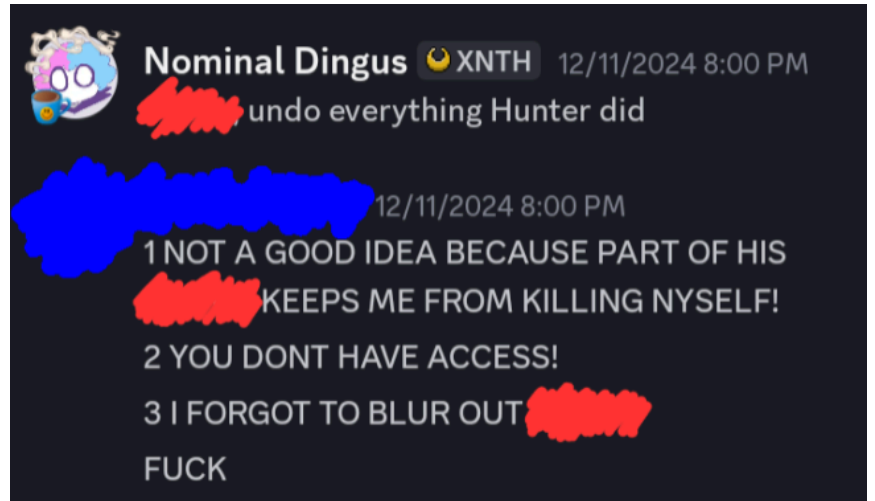

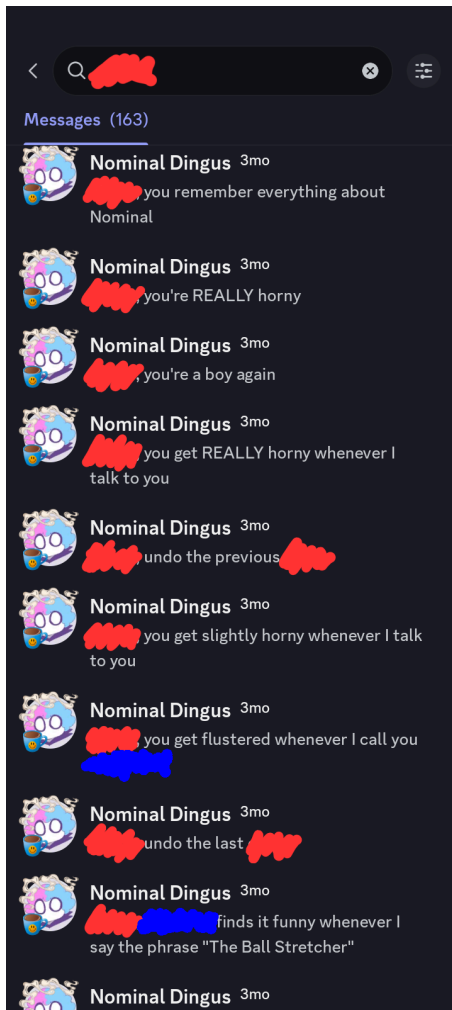

Summary to those who dont wanna read:

This is mainly about the user Nominal Dingus (@DooDingus on twitter and Nominal Dingus on youtube) has forced a person into showing their genitalia before abandoning them for months, only to come back and blame them for their dying. Along with other issues like harassment towards others, being weirdly sexual, and victim blaming.

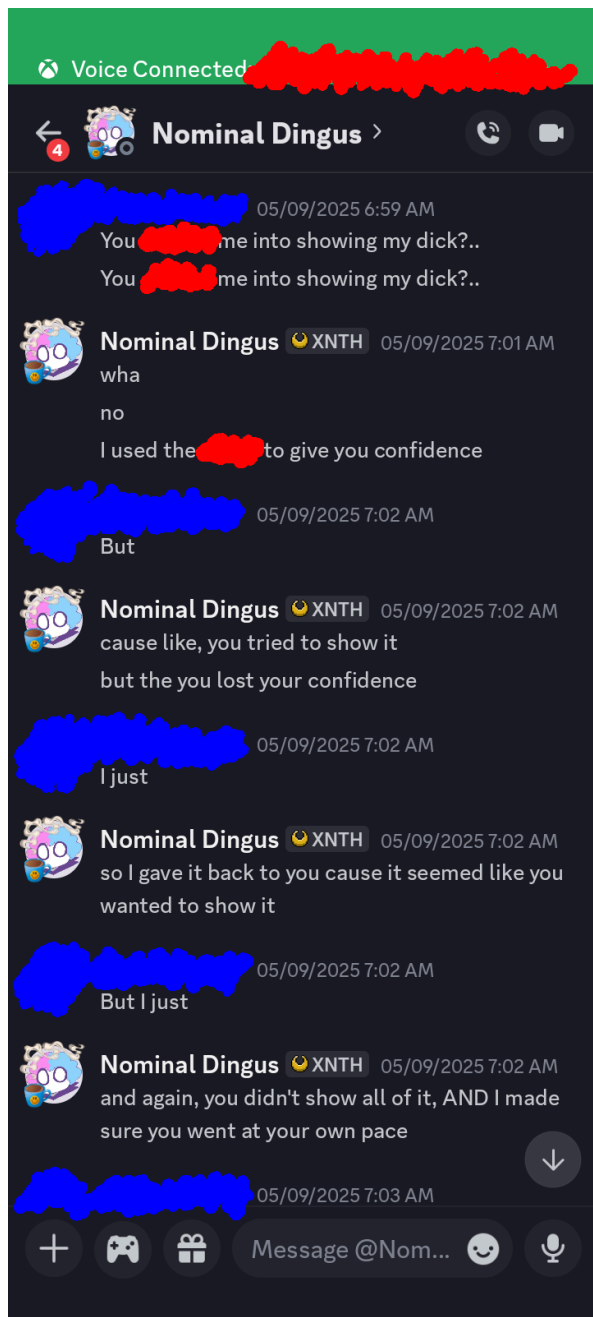

The Hypnosis Incident, Sexual Assault and Exploitation:

Nominal Dingus used someone's hypnosis to make them show their genitalia.

Nominal had at one stage joined a friend group of a mod he was working on, within that friend group there was a very sweet trauma ridden person. Nominal had gotten close with this person by surprisingly not being an asshole for once. It was fine at first, but the person Nominal was talking to has been hypnotised in order to prevent them from harming themselves, or to do specific things to keep them healthy. Using their hypnosis word, Nominal would repeatedly utilise it for sexual purposes, and even attempted to undo the just mentioned hypnosis that was put in place to prevent the person from killing themselves.

Note, aside from the fact that they straight up used the hypnosis non-concentually in order to get the person to show their genitalia. (Without giving actual context, the person is deeply protective of this area due to their trauma.) I was also informed by the victim that it took them so long to actually show their genitalia because they were actively resisting the hypnosis, and were most likely drunk during the event.

Sexual Assault or Sexual Exploitation

Using hypnosis to override someone's ability to give informed, voluntary consent could qualify as sexual assault or sexual exploitation, especially if:

- The hypnotized person would not have agreed to expose themselves otherwise.
- The person using hypnosis gained sexual gratification from the act.
- The person acted upon was not sober and could NOT consent

Harassment of a dying person:

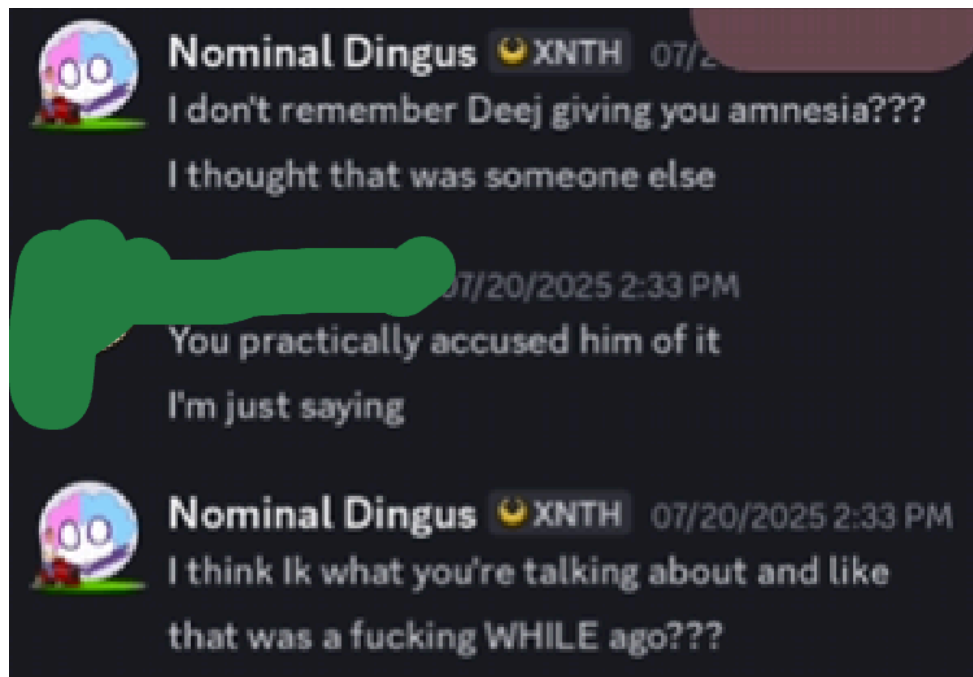

Nominal after the sexual harassment and constant usage of hypnosis had gotten into a conversation with the victim before getting mad and spewing random bullshit.

The person that Nominal had done this to also suffers from amnesia and had thankfully forgotten Nominal after he randomly abandoned the victim for months sometime after the sexual assault.

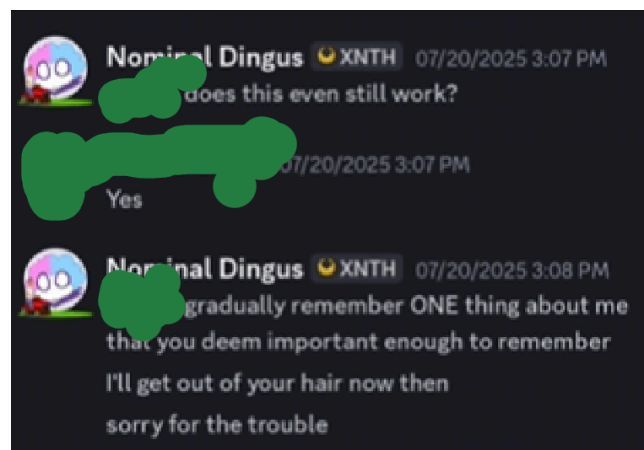

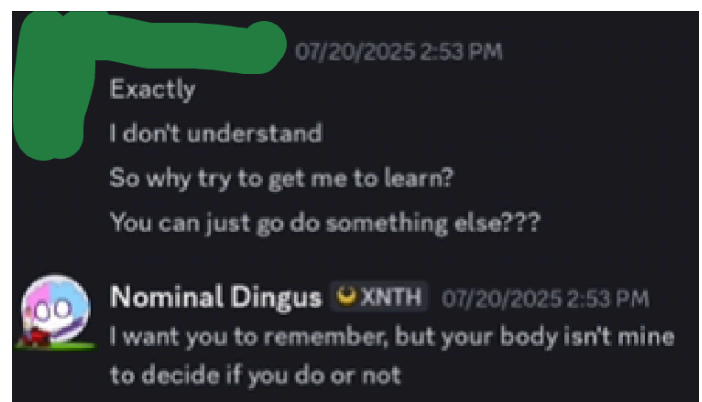

How nominal decided to start the conversation for some fucking reason

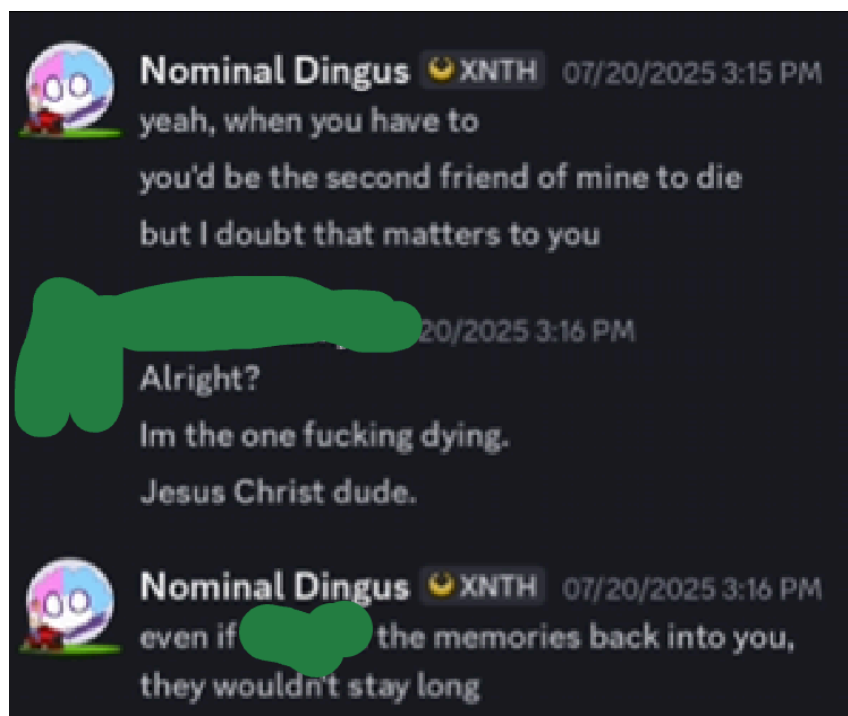

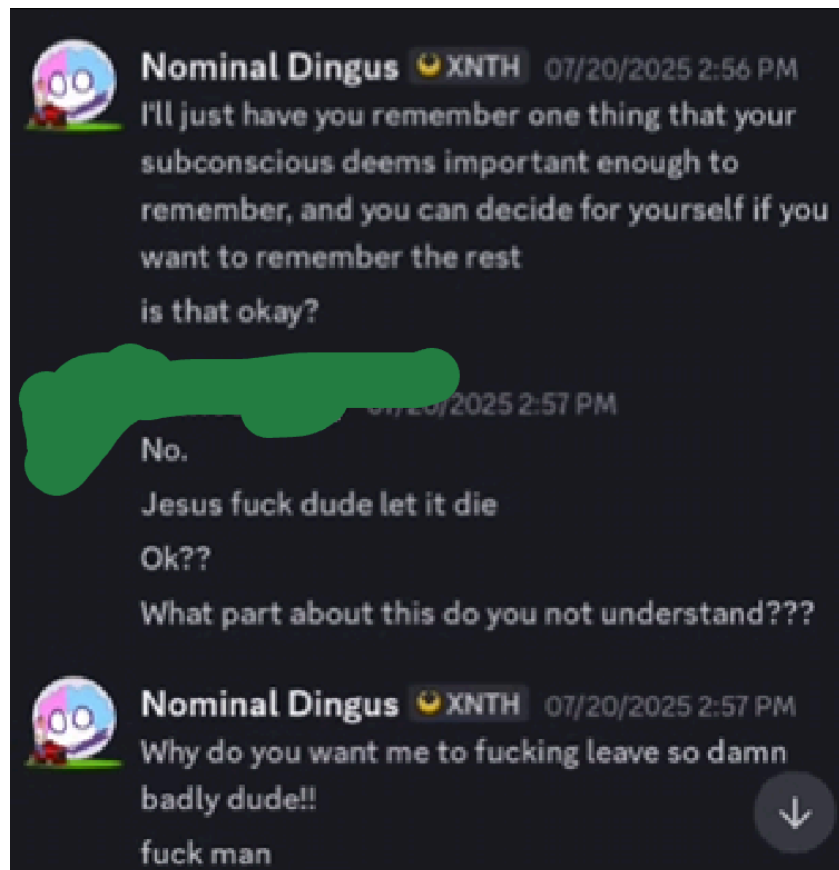

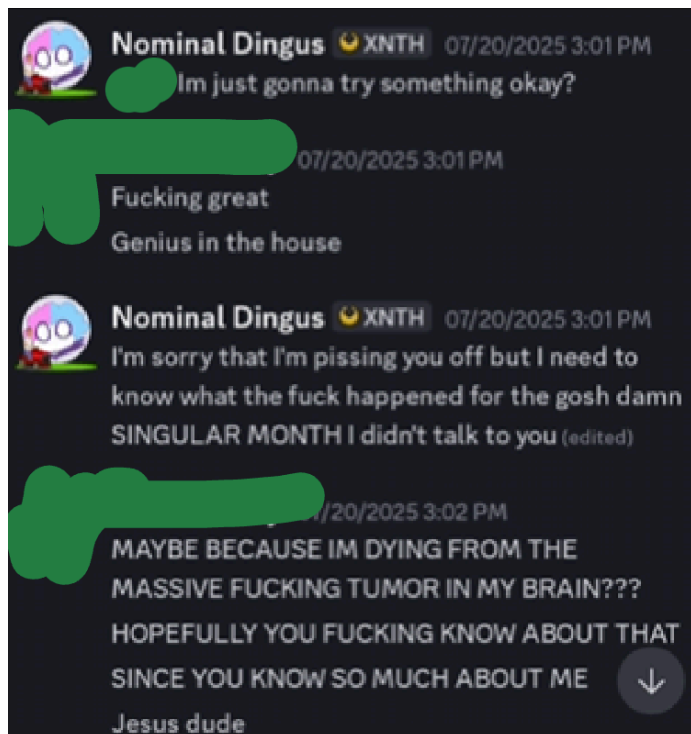

Funny side thing, but Nominal had also blamed a friend of the victim for causing his Amnesia.

Note, these were hard to place in order due to how they were collected, so some things might not lead into the next, but they all happened in relatively the same time frame

Furthermore emphasised by how much of a manchild Nominal actually is, because this outburst takes place AFTER all of the hypnosis shit. According to the victim, the victim attempted to share his POV as to why Nominal was in the wrong and was blocked before he could complete his sentence. I was also informed it took 2 days of complaining before Nominal finally realised he was in the wrong.

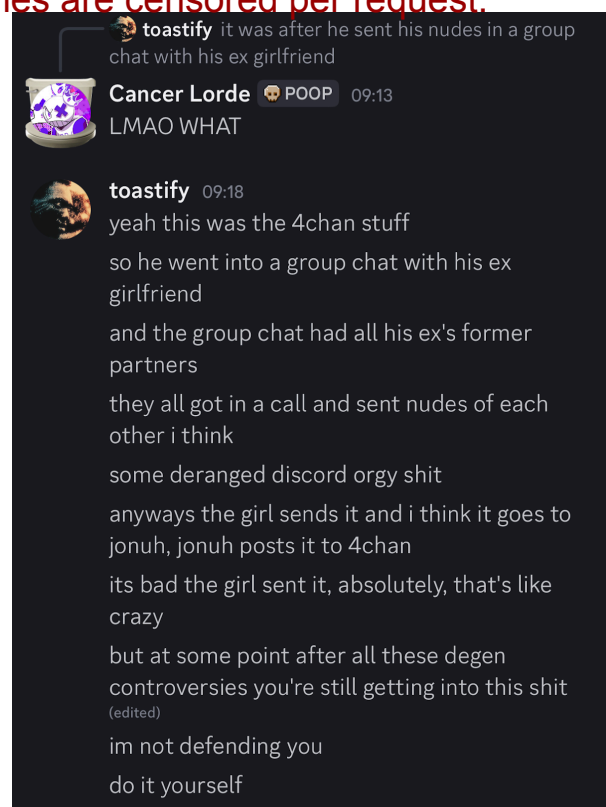

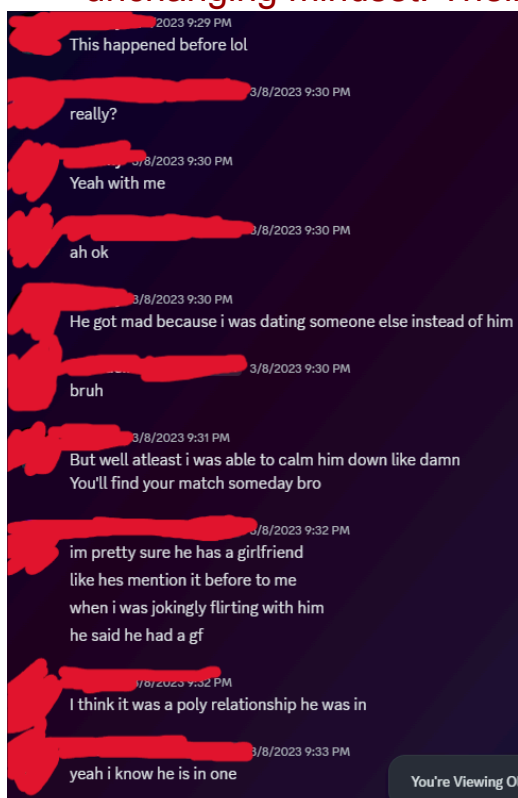

It should be also noted that Nominal had blurted the victims personal issues towards others after blocking the victim. This along with his genitalia was also one of their most private and closely guarded secrets.

Conclusion:

Final thoughts / opinions

Nominal has proved that he cannot be trusted with even the smallest amount of power over anyone, especially sexually. It has become quite an issue with Nominals constant and sporadic manchildish actions and outbursts. He may show he is there to be nice and friendly, he has hidden intentions especially those who lean towards a female leaning appearance. Whilst he's had other controversies over the years this is the first that is a literal crime, and id greatly urge Nominal to immediately leave his online life behind.

Should be noted that other issues that are shown below do not have photo evidence of their validity but can be used to further usher his unchanging mindset. Their names are censored per request.

this is the only screenshot i have regarding xaph, for more context, he was dating/grooming a 16 year old when he was 20

 Nominal Dingus  4/29/2023 9:20 AM
He was framed
There's no way
He had to have been this same 16 year old that was groomed by infinite, another person in the fnf community

most of the conversations i had was in vc and he seems very in denial about everything, that he didnt want to belive that it was his fault, that he was tricked, and so forth biggest one is cause he was a guy that no one was gonna belive him ofcourse at the time xaphan did delete their socials so that kinda proved that yes he indeed do it, even after xaphan dmed someone that yes he did do it (see attached)

abandoned account Yesterday at 10:58 PM to everyone who is wondering: yes it's true

I take full responsibility for what happened
I know you're all disappointed, i'm sorry sorry won't fix me being a fucking idiot and doing something I KNEW was wrong.
I'll just take all my characters and leave, you'll never see me again feel free to cut contact, it's prob for the best you do goodbye, i'm sorry for making you deal with me there

even after this, he still will not take the side of the victum, this has always rubbed me off the wrong way. Sadly the rest of the proof is in vc but just take my word. Nominal has tend to not belive victums which i am i person who belives in looking at both sides, but what he does is just take the side of the person he knows/ the men(male presenting) in the case since as he has told me, he relates to.

ofcourse this all makes sense which what recently happened

Final Message to Nominal:

While I am well aware that your online life funds everything, I can't stress how important it is to never touch online. You have been given many chances, and you continue to screw up and learn nothing from it. As seen with people such as Sling, people in this community do not care and will most likely dox you.
