

Jeff Carroll - Bio

Club Seniors Director (U11-U19 Boys and Girls)

College Advisory Program Director

2009 Boys Academy Head Coach

2005 DPL Head Coach

Jeff Carroll grew up as a Denver Colorado Native, playing for what was Club Columbine Soccer that eventually became Colorado Rush Soccer in 1997. In 1998 he and his brother John Carroll played for the U20 Colorado Rush Nike team that won a National Championship for the club. Jeff attended Holy Cross College in Worcester, MA where he played Division 1 soccer for four years, and helped the program grow into a top 10 team in the Region and top 25 team in the country before graduating. Upon Graduation Jeff chose to go into teaching, education and coaching. Jeff had some short stints with A-League teams before stepping away from the professional game. Prior to joining the Rush, Jeff served for 9 years as Director of Coaching with Colorado Storm/Colorado Rapids NORTH Soccer, and 10 years with Broomfield Soccer before that. He also worked with the Colorado Soccer Association as the head coach of many different ODP/State Select teams. Jeff also feels fortunate to have worked with US Soccer's Region 4 as a Staff coach. Jeff has earned the USSF A-License along with the USC (NCSAA) Premier Diploma. He continues to educate himself and push himself to be better and better every day as a coach, as a mentor, and as a director.

Having done 3+ years working as an assistant coach with Regis University Men's soccer, Jeff is very excited to help our players continue to find their soccer futures in college and is the Colorado CAP director for Rush Soccer

Graduating with a Bachelor's degree in Mathematics from Holy Cross, Jeff continues to educate himself on all levels. Jeff lives with his wife Beth and four kids Anaiah, Alannah, Alijah, and Aleah.
