

Following the successful theatrical release of Brit comedy Chicken Town in the UK, Nodge Films will be at EFM for international sales.

UK press coverage described this warm-hearted indie film as “endearingly daft” (The Guardian) and “rowdy and cheerful” (The Financial Times) with 3- and 4-star reviews praising its mix of earthy humour and British social realism.

Cast includes Laurence Rickard (creator of the hit comedy Ghosts) and Alistair Green (Ted Lasso).

All international rights outside UK/Ireland are available.
