Our Vision

The vision of the Lebanon Valley Council on the Arts is to provide organization, leadership and a voice for the arts to transform people and communities. We believe that where there is art there is life... and envision a community where the arts are for everyone.

How You Can Help

Your membership supports the continued efforts in funding educational arts opportunities in the Lebanon Valley. The Arts Center, located at the center of town serves as a hub for today's emerging and aspiring artists, and also serves as an important resource for the public to engage in artistic experience. Volunteers are always welcome and encouraged.

Membership Benefits

Digital newsletter, Reduced fees for classes and events, Participation in annual Member's Show
