

Who are the Reservoir Dogs?

Mr. Almond (aka Hanlong [LaF])

There has already been a stewards enquiry into his actions during the 2012 hacking scandal so there is no need to rehash that. But here's johnny proving that the oxford dictionary definition of permanent "lasting or intended to last or remain unchanged indefinitely" doesn't apply to a couple of alliances.

Mr. Azure (aka Pain [RD])

Involved in the hacking of the LCN site.

Mr. Chartreuse (aka H4xOr WaNgEr [LaF])

Has been a forum moderator with access to the IP's of all AT users for some time. Influential in LaF during the TC / Hanlong saga. Not currently active in RD.

Mr. Copper & Mr. Firebrick (aka Ant [TIE & SOL])

Along with Mr. Silver had knowledge and involvement in the 2013 hacking scandal (as revealed by Pang) and foreshadowed to other RD colors here. Mr. Firebrick is a real life friend of Makinso.

Mr. Gainsboro (aka Pierre [Numerous])

Head of FR, senior color. Has claimed innocence but view internally suggests he had his head in the sand and his fingers in his ears screaming “la la la la la” in order to avoid dealing with Mr. Silver, Mr. Copper and Mr. Firebrick’s actions. Innocent but culpable as the most senior “clean” head. Classic case of the “it wasn’t me” defense.

Mr. Maize (aka Helmet [SoF])

Along time RD member, is not running a country this reset (maintains and logs into the RD website regularly) but played last reset. Not implicated in current events but previously ran both SoF and RD countries on two different IP’s. But, but, but Helmet use to be anti-cheat? Yeah well Ricky Martin use to be homophobic.

Mr. Silver (aka. Chump)

Denies any involvement but was leader of RD, passed on and posting numerous items of hacked information on RD forums and to other alliances, including SoF. Outside of the excel spreadsheet I’ll post one other more “trivial” example here. Other indiscretions include setting up an IRC relay bot between #solwar and RD IRC. (multiple confirmations). Also responsible for current RD spin strategy, here. You should have hired Lance Armstrong’s publicist. Oprah would have been easier than AT.

Mr. Sunglow (aka Candyman [LaF])

Aka Judas. Actively manipulates his position in LaF to further RD's goals, including discussing potential overthrow of Eugene in conjunction with a number of other current and ex LaF colors. Discussions here.

Eugene, I suggest you get some self defense training, before you get knifed.

Mr. Tan (aka Frog Bu, aka Mr. Purple [LaF]) & Mr. Titanium (alias unknown, ex LaF)

Both known cheaters having previously been deleted. Mr. Tan was the color that instigated farming of MD before SoF's FS.

Mr. Vanilla (Sov [SoF]) & Mr. Smoke (Flamey [SoF])

Extended offer to "outpost" RD in SoF while giving reciprocal access rights to RD heads, including those implicated in hacking scandal. Discussions here.

Update #1: new information has come to hand, can now confirm Mr. Vanilla is actually Sov aka Xyle.

Update #2: new information has come to hand, can now confirm Mr. Smoke is Flamey.

---- What does it all mean? ----

Well that's for you all individually and alliances collectively to decide. These revelations impact all alliances a little differently. But at least now everyone knows the motivations behind certain players and alliances.
