

Agile Student Agreement

Being an Agile Learner comes with great privileges, including (but not limited to):

- Participation in classes/courses/opportunities offered at Spark ALC
- Ability to offer classes/courses/opportunities at Spark ALC
- Ability to attend school and use school property for exploration and learning
- Time, space, and support to pursue your own interests and passions

In order to be an Agile Learner at ALC, we ask for your contribution to our community in the following ways:

- Productive participation in Morning and Afternoon meetings. Focus your mind, engage your heart, and listen to others
- Participate in our weekly reflections
- Cleaning up after yourself throughout the day and at afternoon cleanup time
- Respecting community agreements we implement and practice from “Change-up”
- Responsible use of our physical resources (furniture, art supplies, paper, computers, etc.)
- Be kind and respectful to yourself and to others. Take responsibility and initiative for creating a fun, happy, safe, and supportive community.

I am signing this agreement to be an Agile Learner at Spark ALC and within the larger ALC Network for the 2022-2023 school year!
